The committee heretofore appointed to wait upon the Governor, appeared in the Hall of the House of Representatives, accompanied by the Governor, who, after being presented to the joint session, personally delivered his biennial message to the General Assembly, as follows, to-wit:

EXECUTIVE DEPARTMENT.

STATE OF ILLINOIS.

Members of the Fifty-third General Assembly, Representing the People of the State of Illinois:

It is provided in our Constitution that the Governor shall give information, make recommendations and account to the General Assembly. In accordance with these obligations, I therefore submit the following message:

In my inaugural message of two years ago, I enunciated principles which I accepted as guides for public welfare and I desire to reiterate my faith in these principles at the commencement of this session, and refer you to that communication for my stand upon such issues of public moment as are defined therein.

At the close of the last session of the General Assembly, I called public attention to the failure of legislation permitting the people to vote on the adoption or rejection of people's ownership and operation of street cars at a five-cent fare, and other measures, and promised to convoke special sessions of the Legislature to enact laws to solve these problems.

However, following the adjournment of the Legislature, on July 21, 1921, I was indicted, on numerous unfounded charges, by the Grand Jury of Sangamon County, partly, I believe, as a result of my advocacy of certain measures, during the session of the Fifty-second General Assembly, which were displeasing to the powerful financial interests represented by the Chicago Traction Companies, and partly as a result of my veto of certain excessive appropriations desired by other powerful interests.

I believe that my indictment was planned and executed purposely to so tie my hands and occupy my time with legal defense as to prevent me from devoting my exclusive efforts to the affairs of the State and the promotion of measures beneficial to the people. To some extent these plans were successful.

My time was principally occupied with matters connected with my legal defense until June 24, 1922, when I was finally acquitted by a jury in Waukegan, Lake County. This absolutely prevented my giving time and thought to questions involved in special legislative sessions until too late for new laws to become effective any earlier than they would through the processes of legislation of the present regular session.

ECONOMY AND FINANCES.

The financial condition of the State of Illinois is better today than at any time in its history. The daily balances in the Treasury during the past two years have averaged larger than during any other like period heretofore.

The balance on hand January 1st, 1923, was $22,820,192.79; and the record will prove that in the departments under the supervision of the Governor, the strictest economy, consistent with the best interests of the State, has been practiced; that there have been no illegal expenditures and no improper diversion of appropriations.

In a word, this administration has adhered to the policy that every dollar expended should secure a dollar's worth of service.

During the preceding administration, the sum of $500,000 was wisely appropriated to be used in cases of unforeseen disaster, to meet emergency military expenditure for riots, or expense caused by fire, flood or other emergency requirements in any of the departments. A similar appropriation made by the Fifty-second General Assembly was declared unconstitutional by the Supreme Court.

The great need for adequate appropriation for these possible emergencies was demonstrated during the flood conditions last Spring on the Illinois River, but, owing to the lack of available State funds, it was not possible to pay for the necessary relief given the flood sufferers.

On April 24, 1922, in response to urgent appeals from many quarters, I appointed a committee, known as the Illinois Flood Relief Committee, to assist in the relief of sufferers from floods along the streams in Illinois, and designated the Adjutant General as executive and disbursing officer.

This committee launched a campaign to arouse public interest in relief fund subscriptions and collections. It co-operated with the Illinois Red Cross Relief Committee, and secured the co-operation of newspapers, commercial and civic organizations, mayors of various Illinois cities, and other public and private agencies.

The State of Illinois gave valuable practical assistance, through the assignment to the work in their appropriate capacities, of district health superintendents, sanitary, hydraulic and highway engineers, employees and equipment of the Division of Game and Fish, and officers of the Military Department.

Through the activities of the committee and the Red Cross, combined, more than $77,000 was collected and disbursed for food, seed and cash grants, greatly to the relief of needy sufferers damaged in their personal and property effects by the disastrous floods of last spring.

I take this opportunity of publicly thanking the committee for the unselfish service of its members.

At this time there exists a deficit of $35,000 in the Department of Public Health due to necessary expenditures made for anti-toxin to prevent diphtheria among children, and a deficit of $120,428.73 in the Military Department for the expenses of State troops employed in strike and riot trouble between July 8 and September 22, 1922.

And I am advised that in the Division of Grain Inspection, owing to the unusually large shipments through Chicago, which are required to be inspected by the Grain Office, the appropriations for overtime for that purpose are exhausted. You will, therefore, be requested to make an appropriation of $7,500 to provide for the overtime required for grain inspection for the balance of this fiscal year. All of this appropriation that is used will be refunded to the State by the owners of the grain inspected.

The last General Assembly appropriated over $3,000,000 in emergency appropriations to carry the various activities of the State through the last six months of the biennium. As far as I am informed, there will be no requests from any of the departments under the supervision of the Governor for emergency appropriations, except as above noted. And I am also informed that each of these departments or divisions have unexpended balances in other accounts, which, if transferable, would more than make up these deficits.

According to law, the Department of Finance is preparing a budget of estimated maximum appropriations required for the succeeding two years, which will be submitted to your Honorable Body.

In the preparation of this budget every item is being scrutinized with a view to reducing it to the lowest possible amount consistent with good government and efficient administration.

The aggregate of this proposed budget will be several million dollars less than the aggregate appropriations made by the Fifty-second General Assembly.

REVISION OF THE REVENUE LAWS.

I call the attention of your Honorable Body to the necessity of amending our revenue laws so as to establish a more equitable distribution of the burdens of taxation, and especially with a view to compelling the hidden wealth to bear its just share of the expenses of government.

INDIRECT TAXATION.

A considerable portion of the funds required for State expenses are now being raised by indirect taxation.

This method of providing funds is used by a number of other states, some of which raise all of the revenue they require by this means. With our present rate of 45 cents on the $100 of assessed valuation, we will raise about fifteen or sixteen million dollars. This is but a little more than the amount paid out by the State for educational purposes this fiscal year, which amounts to $14,500,000.

I would suggest that the General Assembly investigate other means of indirect taxation and give serious consideration to still further increasing the inheritance tax.

SOLDIERS' COMPENSATION.

On November 7, the people of Illinois ratified by a large majority the law providing for a bond issue of $55,000,000 for compensation to Illinois men and women who served in the late war. Immediately upon the canvass of the vote, the Service Recognition Board created by the Act to administer the distribution of this fund, consisting of the Governor, the State Treasurer and the Adjutant General, proceeded to organize and in meetings held regularly since that time have formulated a comprehensive set of rules and prepared forms of application to be used to carry out its provisions.

A proceeding to enjoin the Service Recognition Board has been instituted in the courts, and if the law is upheld, as I hope it will be, the payment of compensation to Illinois' veterans will not be delayed.

It becomes your duty, therefore, to take such action as will enable the Board to carry out the intentions of the law and the expressed will of the people by appropriating the $55,000,000 so that the payments may be continued during the ensuing biennium.

An appropriation sufficient to cover the operations of the Board is also of immediate necessity. In my opinion, it is advisable that some method of indirect taxation, as hereinbefore suggested, be devised to provide for the payment of these bonds and the interest thereon as they mature.

BUILDING PROGRAM.

In addition to over $30,000,000 expended on public highways and $1,000,000 on waterways, both of which have been paid out of special funds provided by law, the amount expended in building activities of the State during the past two years totaled approximately $7,000,000, leaving unexpended appropriations of between two and three million dollars made for buildings not yet completed.

When I became Governor in 1921, I found a vast amount of uncompleted work. Not a shovel of earth had been turned in the waterway construction; the Centennial Building was under roof, but required an additional million dollars for completion; the new penitentiary at Lockport, which had been under way since the passage of the law creating the Penitentiary Commission in 1908, was only well started; at the group hospital in Chicago, the foundation walls were barely to the surface of the ground, and only a few of the buildings at the Alton and Dixon State Hospitals were finished.

Rather than start new projects, this administration adopted the policy of completing those which were under construction and great strides have been made toward this end.

With these buildings nearing completion, and in view of the heavy burden of taxation borne by the people of Illinois, it is my hope that we can greatly curtail our building activities during the next two years.

ILLINOIS ROADS.

The $60,000,000 bond issue, approved by the people in 1918, provides for the construction of 4,800 miles of State or trunk line highways. The entire principal and interest of the bonds will be paid by motor license fees without a cent of direct taxation. The maintenance of these roads is also provided for and will be paid from fees collected on motor vehicles. The present automobile license fees are not a burden on the motor users since Illinois' schedule of license fees is below the average of other states, and is substantially lower than that of some of the states in the Middle West, which have as yet no adequate plans for systematic road improvement.

In addition to the money derived from State bonds and motor license fees, the appropriation made to Illinois under the provisions of the Federal Aid Road Law are being utilized for road construction on the bond issue system. Under the terms of this law, Illinois must meet the Federal appropriations dollar for dollar.

WORK PRIOR TO JANUARY, 1921.

When I became Governor in January, 1921, there had been completed of the State Bond Issue System approximately 700 miles of paved roads including State Aid 15-d work. Up to that time no bonds had been issued, but the construction had been financed by means of Federal Aid appropriations and motor license fees, together with moneys advanced by the counties under the provisions of the State Aid Road Law, which provides that when the road is taken over by the State the counties will be reimbursed.

The amounts expended from these sources, up to that time, were about as follows:

Federal Aid Fees.....	$ 5,724,799.05
Motor License Fees.....	10,899,757.52
County Funds	5,434,489.78

Totaling$22,059,046.35

Of the county funds $3,163,278.61 have since been refunded to the counties.

ROAD PRICES FORCED DOWN.

During the war, the cost of roads had mounted higher and higher and in the period following the war, when inflated prices prevailed in practically all lines of commercial endeavor, the price of roads averaged $38,000 to $45,000 per mile. At the time I took office there had been no material reduction in the price of roads, and the first bids opened in 1921 showed that the reduction in price was not in keeping with the reductions in the price of farm products. It was evident that it was economically unsound for the people of this State to be forced to exchange more than 100,000 bushels of corn for a mile of road. I, therefore, directed the officers of the Department of Public Works and Buildings not to award any contracts at a price exceeding $30,000 per mile for a standard 18-foot durable hard surfaced pavement, including average grading, culverts, bridges, and all materials.

Although my stand on the price of roads aroused a great deal of criticism from certain selfish interests, who desired to reap exorbitant profits on road construction, and from others who were uninformed as to prevailing conditions, the Department of Public Works and Buildings has been able to award at figures under $30,000 a mile all pavement contracts let since that date, including some identical sections which had previously been advertised and on which the first bids averaged over $38,000 per mile.

CONTRACTS AWARDED AND WORK COMPLETED 1921-1922.

During the year 1921, there were awarded contracts for 638 miles of standard pavement at an average figure of $28,550 per mile, and in 1922, 475 miles at an average of $26,360 per mile.

These figures indicate that under this policy of demanding a dollar's worth of road for every dollar expended, the price has been steadily reduced.

During the year 1921, there were completed, including State Aid 15-d work, 414 miles of pavement, 100 miles of heavy grading, and 92 large bridges.

During the year 1922, there were completed, including State Aid 15-d work, 722 miles of pavement, 163 miles of heavy grading, and 127 large bridges.

The building of 722 miles of pavement in 1922 is the record of this country for the mileage completed by any one state in any one year.

CONSTRUCTION DIFFICULTIES OVERCOME.

Plans were made and contracts were let with the intention of completing 1,000 miles of pavement in the year 1922 and this mileage would undoubtedly have been completed if conditions had been at all favorable.

Conditions over which I had no control greatly interfered with my official duties, and these together with the prolonged rains for the first few months in the spring delayed road construction in every part of the State. Then, when the construction season was getting fairly started, the coal strike and the rail strike occurred. The coal strike soon became felt on account of the shortage of fuel at the plants manufacturing cement. The rail strike greatly crippled transportation and difficulty was encountered in moving paving materials.

The Interstate Commerce Commission issued orders placing all flat cars in the coal trade, and the Federal Fuel Administration restricted the cement mills from using coal for cement manufacture. After a great deal of intensive effort on the part of the Department of Public Works and Buildings, these orders were amended which partially relieved the situation and enabled a limited amount of work to get under way.

The State construction had steadily advanced until 41 miles of 18-foot pavement were constructed in one week. When it became impossible to get cement and other material, this construction was reduced to less than one-third of that mileage; and even this limited construction would have been impossible if there had not been material in storage in some places.

In spite of these adverse conditions, the Department of Public Works and Buildings, and the road contractors went courageously on with this important work, and were able to establish the world's record in the miles constructed this year.

EARLY LETTING OF CONTRACTS NECESSARY.

Experience has shown and common sense will indicate that the only feasible way to bring about the completion of a large mileage of road during a construction season is to award all contracts in the fall, or at the earliest possible date of the new year. This enables the contractors to ship their materials during the early spring months, to get their plants set up, and to get ready for the actual construction work when fair weather arrives. The Department of Public Works and Buildings has awarded contracts and advertised for bids during the recent fall months for such a mileage that the State is in a position to enter the season of 1923 with nearly 800 miles of pavement; 138 miles of heavy grading and 123 large bridges under contract to be built this year.

EMERGENCY APPROPRIATION NEEDED.

The contracts which have been awarded utilize the greater portion of the appropriations which have been made by the General Assembly, and before any additional contracts can be awarded, it will be necessary for the General Assembly to appropriate additional amounts from the road and State bond road funds. These appropriations should be made available early in the session, so that it will be possible for the Department of Public Works and Buildings to award contracts for several hundred miles more before spring work commences, which, together with the contracts already in force, will insure the completion of at least 1,000 to 1,200 miles of standard 18-foot durable hard surfaced pavements during the year 1923.

PROGRESS ON STATE BOND ISSUE ROADS.

Considering the progress on the State bond issue system, it is found that there have been completed approximately 1,650 miles of pavement. This construction has been paid for by approximately $11,260,564.00 from Federal Aid funds; $21,127,666.00 from auto license fees; $13,733,558.00 from the sale of State road bonds, and $8,456,737.00 from county funds; making a total of about $54,578,525.00.

As stated before, contracts now in force, together with bids under consideration, will nearly exhaust the present appropriations, namely, $30,000,000 from the State bond issue fund and the estimated collection of motor fees up to July 1, 1923.

ROAD BOND SALES.

Up to the present time we have sold $17,000,000 in State road bonds. These were sold in three separate issues:

The first issue of $5,000,000 bringing a price of $94.20;

The 2nd issue of $6,000,000 bringing a price of $98.875;

The 3rd issue of $6,000,000 bringing a price of $99.688.

It will be noted that the bond market has been steadily improving with the result that 4 per cent bonds at the last sale yielded almost par. The interest yield on the last bond sale was 4.04 per cent. These bonds have been sold only as their proceeds were needed for actual construction work, thus saving to the people unnecessary interest payments.

PRESENT FUNDS EXHAUSTED BY JANUARY, 1925.

It is the present plan to award contracts and build 1,000 miles of road during the year 1923, and another 1,000 miles during the year 1924. It is evident that at the prevailing prices, this will exhaust the entire State bond issue and that by the end of the year 1924, there will have been completed from 3,600 to 3,800 miles of the 4,800-mile system. If the State is to build the remaining 1,000 to 1,200 miles, this session of the General Assembly must take steps to finance the State's road program after January 1, 1925.

PROPOSED NEW STATE ROAD BOND ISSUE.

I believe the people of Illinois want the 4,800 miles provided in the bond issue completed, and that there are many other roads in this State nearly as important as the roads which this system includes. I recommend for your very careful consideration the passage of a law providing for another bond issue to be paid, principal and interest, out of the automobile license fees sufficient in amount to complete the present system and bring our total mileage of hard surfaced paved roads up to seven or eight thousand miles.

The constitution of Illinois provides that before any bonds can be issued, the question must be submitted to a vote of the people at a general election. The next general election will be held in November, 1924. If any further funds are to be made available by this means, necessary legislation must be passed at this session in order that the people may vote in 1924 to determine whether or not the work shall proceed. If favorable, the money would then be available for work in 1925 without any delay. Failure of this session of the General Assembly to take some such action would mean the cessation of road activities in Illinois for at least two years, or until the succeeding General Assembly could enact such legislation for ratification by the people in 1926.

MOTOR FEE COLLECTIONS.

I herewith submit the following table, showing the number of cars registered and the motor fees collected in this State in past years:

Year of collection.	Number of vehicles.	Fees collected.
1911	38,269	$ 105,344.28
1912	68,012	375,716.22
1913	94,646	507,134.77
1914	131,140	703,403.70
1915	180,832	924,905.74
1916	248,429	1,242,509.85
1917	340,252	1,587,772.69
1918	389,761	2,762,567.53
1919	478,438	3,262,176.57
1920	568,759	5,893,586.02
1921	670,452	6,663,910.22
1922 to December 1.....	785,378	7,849,693.68
an increase of 115,000 vehicles and $1,200,000 over 1921

Total 1911 to 1922..... $31,878,721.27

An examination of this table shows that the number of cars registered and the motor fee collections are mounting higher and higher each year, and these figures have already reached heights undreamed of when the present bond issue of $60,000,000 was voted on by the people.

ESTIMATED FUTURE COLLECTIONS WILL RETIRE PRINCIPAL AND INTEREST ON BONDS
—NO DIRECT TAX.

With the completion of a larger and larger mileage of roads, it seems entirely safe to predict that the present scale of fees would produce revenues amounting to approximately $300,000,000 in the years 1923 to 1948, inclusive. This fund would be sufficient to retire the present bond issue of $60,000,000 and the interest thereon amounting to approximately $22,000,000, and at the same time retire the principal and interest on an additional bond issue as great as $100,000,000 and yet leave several million dollars annually for the maintenance of the completed roads.

This is estimating that it will require six years to complete the entire system of 7,000 or 8,000 miles; and that the last bonds, issued five years from now, would mature twenty years later.

Consideration of the above figures would indicate that an undertaking of even this magnitude could be carried out without any increase in fees, but if, after the completion of the roads, the number of licensed motor vehicles should fall somewhat short of expectations, a slight increase in fees might be necessary. In my opinion, any legislation revising the present scale of motor fees at this time should be directed not at the average passenger vehicle, but more equitably toward the heavy truck, inasmuch as a very substantial part of the cost of pavements is due to the necessity of providing pavements capable of supporting truck loads.

SCIENTIFIC ROAD TESTS.

With such large sums of money to be expended for road improvement, it was deemed wise to make scientific investigations into the subject of highway construction, in order to insure the permanency of the investment of the people of this State.

The Department of Public Works and Buildings constructed, at a point a few miles west of Springfield, what has been popularly termed the Bates Experimental Road, consisting of 63 different sections, embodying all the practical combinations and thicknesses of brick, asphalt, portland cement, concrete and macadam. This road has been under observation for many months. During the past summer, this road was subjected to a traffic test and much valuable road engineering data have been obtained.

Motor trucks were operated over the entire length of this road and a careful record was taken of the action of each section of road under this traffic. The loads of the trucks were increased in successive stages from 2500 pounds to 8000 pounds, per rear wheel or maximum load of 24,000 pounds, including vehicle, the latter being the present legal limit in this State. It was found that the destructive action of trucks increases as their weight increases, and it is unreasonable to hope that a system of roads will be permanent unless the limitation of the loads which use these highways is rigidly enforced.

FURTHER INCREASE IN TRUCK LOADS DISASTROUS.

I am convinced that it would be disastrous to increase the permissible weight of trucks beyond the limit now prescribed in our motor vehicle law. The test road shows conclusively that our present specifications for building roads are adequate to sustain the present legal loads with perfect safety, but it shows further that these roads might be easily destroyed should we permit increases in the legal truck loads now in force and effect, and I recommend that no legislation tending to further increase the permissible weight of the trucks be passed.

STATE HIGHWAY POLICE.

Under the law enacted by the last General Assembly, there has been established a State Highway police force, which has been very active in stopping this abuse of the roads by overloaded trucks. Any legislation should be directed rather towards strengthening the authority of these State highway officers, for only by rigid enforcement of this law can our investment in highways be properly conserved. These State Highway Police Officers have had impressed upon them the fact that they are the servants of the public; that it is their function to assist the traveling public in every way and at the same time to enforce the motor vehicle laws. It has been made very clear to them that any abuse of their power by preying upon the public, by blackmailing or accepting bribes would be cause for summary dismissal.

I believe that our force is made up of men of a class and character who would not take advantage of their official position for dishonest purposes. However, throughout the State there have been some claiming to be deputy sheriffs, constables and others falsely parading, under the guise of the law, who have preyed upon and abused the traveling public by ruthless and ridiculous arrests and by acceptance of bribes, with the result that our people are thoroughly aroused over this issue.

I feel that steps should be taken by this General Assembly to pass legislation which will place in the hands of a State Highway Police Force the enforcement of the law relating to traffic on all State Highways.

STATE MAINTENANCE OF STATE ROADS IN CITIES AND VILLAGES NEEDED.

Under the Bond Issue Law, the State has the right to build State highways through cities and villages of certain definite prescribed population, but it does not have the right to maintain the roads within the city or village limits after completion. As a result, many of these pavements are suffering severely from lack of proper maintenance and the State is powerless to prevent it. I feel that the people of this State are entitled to legislation which will insure the permanency of the roads for which the people pay, and I urgently recommend that legislation be passed empowering the State to maintain all roads which it has the power to construct.

MARKING STATE ROUTES THROUGH CITIES AND VILLAGES NEEDED.

Under the provisions of the present law, the Department of Public Works and Buildings has prepared and partially erected a State marking system for State roads. The importance of this marking system to the traveling public cannot be overestimated, and one of the most necessary things in connection with such a system is that the routes be properly marked through cities and villages.

I feel that this question is of sufficient importance to merit legislation empowering the Department of Public Works and Buildings to select routes and erect markers through all cities and villages in the State in such a manner as will best serve the interests of the traveling public.

STATE AID ROADS.

Under the legislation passed by the last General Assembly, it was provided that the counties should take over for maintenance the State Aid roads in the respective counties, and the county boards were authorized to levy a tax for this purpose to be known as the County Highway Tax. In those counties, which have entered whole-heartedly into the spirit of this law, great advances have been made in road maintenance and the people have enjoyed highway transportation service which previously had been unattainable because of an absence of a county unit for the administration of county roads.

I feel that this legislation was essentially sound and that the maintenance of the State Aid road system of the respective counties, which roads are primarily county roads, should be centralized in the County Board of Supervisors and its authorized agencies. This will enable the township and road district funds to be expended on the roads which serve the township or road district with the result that a much higher degree of road service may be rendered to the taxpayers of those units of government.

SUMMARY OF ROAD FACTS AND RECOMMENDATIONS.

Summarizing the statements which I have outlined in the foregoing paragraphs, I offer the following facts and recommendations:

1. That Illinois is building more rapidly than any other state an adequate system of highways which are positively known to be capable of sustaining the present and anticipated traffic.

2. That these roads are being built at a cost commensurate with prevailing economic conditions.

3. That all motor license fees are being and will be utilized as fast as received for the building of roads and the retiring of bonds, and that the State bonds are being issued only as needed for actual construction.

4. That at the present rate of progress, Illinois will have completed 3,600 to 3,800 miles of the Bond Issue system, leaving approximately 1,200 to 1,000 miles which will not be completed by the end of the year 1924, and that by that date all the funds made available under the present laws will have been exhausted.

5. That it becomes necessary at this session of the General Assembly to outline plans and pass legislation for the further financing of the Illinois road work after that date if the work is to go on without cessation.

6. That this can probably best be done by passing at this session a law calling for a bond issue to be voted by the people in November, 1924, said bond issue, principal and interest, to be financed entirely by motor license fees without direct taxation. This bond issue should provide for the completion of the present State Bond Issue Road system and for the construction of perhaps 2,500 to 3,000 of additional State roads, making a total of seven or eight thousand miles of trunk line roads.

7. The estimated license fees will provide adequate funds to retire the present bond issue and the proposed bond issue, if not to exceed $100,000,000, and leave several million dollars annually for the maintenance of the roads constructed.

8. That no further increase in the weight of motor trucks on the public highways be permitted.

9. That the policing of the State highways and the enforcing of the highway laws be vested in a State Highway Police Force.

10. That the State be empowered to maintain all hard surface roads built by the State, including those lying within the corporate limits of cities and villages.

11. That the State be empowered to select and mark routes through all cities and villages of the State necessary to connect the State Highway system.

12. That the laws now in force which have greatly increased the quality and serviceability of our county and township roads be conserved and strengthened.

ILLINOIS WATERWAY.

The transportation problem, which has become a serious one, both to the farmer and to industry in Illinois, as well as in the Nation, demands our earnest consideration.

High freight rates are resulting not only in a tax that reduces revenue to producers and increases cost to consumers, but the inability to handle products of the farm is resulting in waste and loss, while industry in our State has difficulty in competing with many more favored localities.

The great strides in the construction of better highways is giving some relief from traffic congestion and high rates, but the State has another valuable undeveloped resource in its opportunity for water transportation. If our natural resources in this respect are wisely developed, Illinois will have in its system of railroads, highways and waterways unexcelled means of transportation.

The key to this great waterway development is the Illinois River. The first explorers recognized the feasibility of this plan and the improvement of this river was advocated by the first Governor of Illinois and has received study and attention from the succeeding administrations.

The construction of the Panama Canal has given the Eastern seaboard a great advantage over the Middle West in trade with the Pacific Coast points and the Orient with resultant detriment to industry in Illinois.

The experimental barge line placed in service on the lower Mississippi by the Federal Government is handling freight in conjunction with railroads, and although this line only reaches the southern border of the State, it is forwarding Illinois export grain at a material saving in freight charges.

It is believed that with direct water navigation and transportation from the Lakes to the Gulf, the farmers of Illinois will receive from 3 to 6 cents a bushel more for their grain, and industry in Illinois will be re-established on a fair competitive basis.

Railroad cars and equipment, to a considerable extent, will be released for service in other parts of the State and Nation where water routes cannot serve.

I believe the advantages to the State are such as to justify as rapid progress and completion of the work as possible. The first real work on the Illinois Waterway has been accomplished during the past two years by the construction of the first great lock located near Marseilles, which is nearly completed.

Two years ago, the estimates of the engineers for the completion of the Illinois Waterway were $30,000,000. With one lock completed, it is now believed that the waterway can be finished, except for power plants, for the $19,000,000 now remaining in the Waterway Bond Fund.

I, therefore, recommend the reappropriation of the $19,000,000 remaining of the $20,000,000 bond issue authorized in 1908.

I further recommend that the General Assembly memorialize Congress to proceed with the improvement of the Illinois and Mississippi Rivers from Utica to Cairo, so as to provide a nine foot channel for navigation, and at the same time to consider such remedial work as may be necessary in connection with change of location, strengthening or raising of levees on the Illinois River to protect the people of the State along that river from damage from flood, as is done in connection with the Mississippi River under Federal Government supervision.

BIG MUDDY RIVER SURVEY.

The Fifty-second General Assembly provided an appropriation to complete a field survey of the Big Muddy River penetrating the great coal fields of Southern Illinois and to report upon the availability of the river for navigation and the cost of its improvement. This survey has been made and the report will soon be submitted to your Honorable Body.

It is entirely probable that there are other rivers in the State which can be connected with the Waterways when completed and of which it might be advisable to make surveys.

ILLINOIS STATE PARKS.

The Division of Parks, during the past year, has made rapid progress in placing Illinois in the position where it belongs as one of the leading states in the Union in the conservation for the benefit of the people of areas of land which are noted for beauty of scenery or historic interest. Many such places have already been taken over by the State and no effort is being spared to preserve them in their original grandeur.

The historic spots and parks now under the supervision of the Department of Public Works and Buildings are: Lincoln Monument, Lincoln Homestead, Vandalia Court House, Douglas Monument, Fort Massac, Fort Chartres, Old Salem Park, Starved Rock Park, Fort Creve Coeur and Metamora Court House.

The rapid extension of the State's hard road system is making the State parks more popular year by year, giving opportunity as it does to citizens in every section of the State to visit the different scenes of historic interest. Because of this fact, improvement work on the different parks is being pushed as rapidly as possible, and special arrangements are being made at all points for the convenience of tourists, especially those who make the trip by motor.

The motor tourist camp at Starved Rock is declared by interstate tourists to be one of the best equipped and most conveniently arranged in the Middle West. On Labor Day, 1922, more than 3,000 motor cars were parked in and around this camp. Work is already under way to make this site a perfect one for campers. Plans have been approved for a large shelter house which will include rest rooms, shower baths, wash rooms and flush toilets. An artesian well 900 feet deep provides the park with pure water and it is sufficient in quantity to enable the department to pipe it to the camp ground.

It may be interesting to note that the receipts from the concessions at Starved Rock Park approximately equal the cost of maintenance.

Old Fort Chartres, long neglected and unsurpassed in historic associations, is being restored.

At Old Salem park plans for the restoration of the city as it existed during Lincoln's residence there in 1831, are nearing completion. A contract now under consideration contemplates the restoration of each log cabin at no cost to the State. When this project is completed it will be the only abandoned city in the world that has been restored in its entirety.

During the past biennium the administration has added by purchase one hundred and fifty acres to Fort Massac Park, which spot is of historical interest, the one time headquarters of George Rogers Clark, the noted explorer. Work has already been begun toward beautifying the new addition.

All other parks and sites of historical interest have been given special attention, and are maintained in good repair.

Illinois parks are not surpassed by those of any other state, and the program mapped out gives promise of greater developments. The State park movement is well started, and the conservation of natural beauty spots and sites of historic interest is appealing strongly to the patriotic people of Illinois and all lovers of nature.

THE DEPARTMENT OF PUBLIC WELFARE.

During the past few months, I have visited each of the 26 charitable, penal, correctional and educational institutions of the State, and inspected all buildings in the course of construction. It has been my aim that these institutions be conducted with the greatest possible economy consistent with the best results, keeping in mind at all times the comfort and proper treatment of the State's unfortunates.

On December 1, 1922, there were present in the various State institutions, including patients, pupils, inmates and employees, 33,813 persons.

Notwithstanding the increase in population, approximating three thousand, and the increase in prices of some of the essential commodities, such as fuel, and the continued high prices of groceries, we have been able to operate the institutions of the State within the appropriation made by the Fifty-second General Assembly, and will turn back to the Treasurer an unexpended balance.

Although the population of the various institutions continues to increase, by the introduction of further economies, which the past two years' experience has taught, we will be able to carry on successfully the splendid work now being done without added burden to the taxpayers of the State. The budget for the Department of Public Welfare for the ensuing biennium will not exceed the appropriation of two years ago.

INTENSIVE FARMING AND BUSINESS METHODS.

In this accomplishment, we have been favored by Providence with an abundant harvest. The 12,000 acres of farm land under control of this department have yielded greatly in excess of other years through methods of intensive farming that have been introduced.

Over 1,500 dairy cows are maintained on these farms, and in 1922 between four and five thousand hogs were fattened and slaughtered.

The truck and fruit gardens on the State farms produced last year about 250,000 bushels of fruit and vegetables, which is a very large increase over any previous year. This not only helped to reduce the cost of maintenance, but contributed to palatable and healthful variations in the food furnished. A portion of these products are conserved for out of season use by canning, drying and other processes which effects a still greater saving. These activities are capable of still further extension both as an economic investment and for their therapeutic value to the inmate.

Economies have been introduced in the housekeeping of the various institutions, and these institutions have been able to feed the wards of the State at reduced cost, at the same time furnishing them with abundance of well-balanced food. Pure, whole milk has been one of the principal dietetic advantages given particularly in the homes and schools which house the younger population. The reports show that there has been a marked increase in the average weight of all of the wards of the State.

HERDS FREE FROM TUBERCULOSIS.

For the first time the dairy herds of the State institutions are practically free from tuberculosis. In the first test made in the summer of 1921, of the 1,872 cattle tested, 449 were found to be reactors; the next test in May 1922 showed 145 reactors, and the third test, the latter part of October, 1922, developed 105 reactors, making a total of 699 tubercular animals, which have been disposed of according to law. We have been able to replace the infected stock at cost well within the appropriation made by the Fifty-second General Assembly for that purpose. In doing so, better standards of breeding have been introduced.

ECONOMY IN BUYING FUEL.

During the past year, bids for contracts for coal on an annual basis were called for. The prices, revealed by these bids, were far in excess of the dictates of economical administration. Taking advantage of a break in market price, all of the bids were rejected and new contracts were made for immediate delivery at greatly reduced cost.

I have cited these instances that you may understand the endeavor that is being made to conduct the affairs of the State on sound business principles.

APPLICATION OF SCIENTIFIC TREATMENT.

The rigid economies which have been introduced, however, have not been permitted to interfere with the scientific treatment of the wards of the State, nor with the application of the most advanced and accepted methods of treatment of the patients, nor with the instruction of pupils in the various schools. Our careful solicitude has been given to this feature of the work by the introduction in the hospitals of X-ray therapy; in the School for the Deaf by instruction in voice, and in the School for the Blind in the conservation of vision; while, in such institutions as are provided with libraries, the inmates, patients and pupils are given the greatest freedom of use consistent with discipline and proper management.

BUILDING PROGRAM EXPEDITED.

The building program has been conducted under adverse conditions. Materials and labor are but slightly reduced from wartime prices. Wherever possible, the State has used materials at its own command, such as washed gravel and sand taken from the State property. Every economy, consistent with good construction, has been practiced; thus we have been enabled to keep within the appropriations. In the construction of buildings devoted to World-War Veterans at the Elgin State Hospital, the State has set a new record in the element of time. Never before has housing construction of equal magnitude at the State institutions been so expeditiously and thoroughly conducted.

THE NEW PRISON AT LOCKPORT.

The construction work on the new prison at Lockport has made greater progress during the past two years than since the creation of the commission in the year 1908. About eight hundred prisoner laborers have been transferred and are now being housed and maintained at the new prison, and are engaged on the construction work.

Since July 1, 1921, when the appropriation made by the Fifty-second General Assembly became available, the re-enforced concrete enclosing wall $1\frac{1}{4}$ miles in length, 33 feet in height, with foundations extending from 10 to 30 feet below grade have been completed. It encloses 64 acres, said to be the largest prison yard in the United States. The wagon lock and railroad gate, yard towers, permanent railroad track leading to the prison and connected with the temporary construction track have been finished and are in operation.

The cold storage and supply warehouse building with refrigerating equipment installed; the permanent power house building, including the basement of 1,860 lineal feet of connecting corridors, in which are being placed steam pipes and electric wire cables, have been built, while 360 feet of additional corridors will be finished by March 1, 1923. The roof is being placed on the third cell house, which is nearing completion. A portion of the administration building, the psychiatric and classification building, the kitchen, the large dining room, the laundry and the bakery, will all be under roof in a short time. Work has started on a warehouse or factory building with ground dimensions of 125 feet by 250 feet.

The entire system of trunk line sewers, both storm and sanitary, with sewage purification plant and filter beds connected with each building, has been installed and is in operation. Water mains, connecting with 100,000 gallon tower tank, have been extended to the buildings erected. Steam mains and return pipers are being installed. I mention these matters in detail that you may have a better conception of the work that has been done.

The Penitentiary Commission and the Department of Public Welfare have agreed upon a program of construction for the next biennium, which, it is expected, will make possible the transfer of the entire men's prison to the new institution.

CROWDED CONDITIONS RELIEVED.

The crowded condition of a number of the institutions has been relieved. After two years of constant effort, we can at last report that, for the first time in years, there is a comfortable bed for every inmate in the State institutions. This has been accomplished in spite of the continually increasing population. The condition at the Lincoln State School and Colony, where there has been a long waiting list, has also been relieved. For the first time in 15 years, those committed to that institution are being promptly received. This has been brought about by the construction of cottages and dormitories at the Dixon State Colony to which a large number of wards have been transferred.

DEATH RATE DECREASED.

The mortuary statistics of the various institutions show a decided decrease in the number of deaths. This is particularly marked in the cases of violent deaths by accident or from other unforeseen and untoward causes.

CRIMINOLOGY AND INSTITUTE FOR JUVENILE RESEARCH.

The application of mental measurements to the institutional population of the penal and correctional groups has been extended, and, as a result, the first comprehensive data on the mentality of the criminal and juvenile delinquent within our institutions has been made available in the scientific report of the Criminologist's Division. The data thus secured have been of especial service to the management of the institutions and to the Division of Pardons and Paroles in connection with their work.

The Institute for Juvenile Research has developed the scientific study of behavior among minors. Of greatest importance to the general public perhaps is the preventive work of the institute. By means of active supervision and still more thorough advice and recommendations, based on careful examinations, of such cases, to social and welfare agencies, it has been possible to care for more than 1,500 youthful offenders and feeble-minded persons without commitment to institutions.

This result is not to be regarded as commensurate with the need existing within the State. Merely a beginning has been made; but, it is a convincing evidence that careful scientific work, if properly applied by the co-operation of our courts and local welfare agencies, with the Department of Public Welfare, not infrequently may secure alleviation and correction for the subnormal and the delinquent without increasing the taxpayers' burden, while at the same time adequately safeguarding the community.

DIVISION OF PARDONS AND PAROLES.

The penal population in penitentiaries and the reformatory is the largest in the history of the State. In 1918 the penal population began to increase. At the close of the two year period ended September 30, 1922, the increased population was approximately 25 per cent above normal. At that time the wards of the State in the penitentiaries and reformatory totaled 3,417 inmates, distributed as follows: Joliet, 1,980; Chester, 1,159; Pontiac, 1,248; Vandalia State Farm, 50.

Comparison of the incoming and outgoing penal population during the biennium shows the following:

	Received.	Paroled.
Joliet	1,292	826
Chester	953	605
Pontiac	1,333	926
Total	3,578	2,357

General tightening of paroles granted by the Division of Pardons and Paroles and increased commitments from the various counties account for the increased penal population.

The Illinois State Penitentiaries at Joliet and Chester and the reformatory at Pontiac have more inmates than ever before.

In its work the Division of Pardons and Paroles of the Department of Public Welfare is in close co-operation with the various State's Attorneys and committing authorities throughout the State, including Police Departments in the larger cities. Exceptionally satisfactory results and betterments are being obtained through newly originated plans for close co-operation between the committing and paroling authorities.

Results attained in Illinois have attracted favorable attention in many other states, several of which now are inaugurating similar plans for handling penal problems and paroles.

In Illinois no person goes upon parole from either penitentiary or the reformatory until a job has been secured for the parolee and the sponsor has been investigated. Every parolee is required to go to work the day after leaving the institution, with no period of idleness in between. The State has been divided into parole districts, with headquarters in each, and a parole agent in charge who exercises aftercare over each individual upon parole in that district from the various institutions.

During the past year the Division of Pardons and Paroles has taken over the aftercare and supervision of boys and girls, numbering approximately 1,000 persons, paroled from the industrial schools at St. Charles and Geneva. For many years little aftercare or supervision was exercised over boys and girls paroled from these schools.

In assuming this task the parole agents have availed themselves of the aid of all local agencies such as social service and welfare workers of churches and civic organizations and the various probation officers in the different counties. The same watchful care is being exercised in this new endeavor that has marked the aftercare work of the division in the past. The reports from the managing officers at these two schools are of the most flattering character and clearly establish the wisdom of this new undertaking.

At the annual meeting of the Illinois State's Attorneys' Association, just concluded in Peoria, the work of the Division of Pardons and Paroles was highly commended. In past years the State's Attorneys' Association condemned the parole law and severely criticized its administration.

ILLINOIS MOTHERING 4,000 CHILDREN.

Through its Division of Visitation of Children and the Soldiers' Orphans' Home at Normal, Illinois is mothering 4,000 little children. This division is alert to see that these children are properly cared for and given homes where they will be well treated and furnished an education that will equip them for the battle of life. I commend to you this splendid work in the firm belief that the hearts of the people will be ever responsive to the appeals of the motherless, fatherless little ones.

CARE OF THE WORLD-WAR VETERANS.

The State has not been unmindful of its duty in the care of the veterans of the World War whose misfortunes have made them patients of the various State hospitals. Illinois is the only State in the Union that has provided special buildings and equipment for the care and treatment of these veterans. A building has been constructed at the Elgin State Hospital for their especial benefit. It is provided with every modern convenience. Nothing has been left undone that it is possible to do to provide them with the greatest amount of comfort and with the latest scientific treatment. This is true, also, in other institutions where they are being cared for, particularly at Jacksonville, where a separate building is practically completed, with a view to the segregation of veterans at the earliest possible date.

We feel that nothing is too good for those who, through their patriotism and love of country, offered their lives and, through the fate of war, have been returned to us, with their health physically and mentally impaired. With scientific care and treatment we will try to restore both. At least, we can and will provide them with such comforts of life as are within our power.

DIVISION OF PLANT INDUSTRY.

Under the direction of this division, 306 nurseries with an acreage totaling 3,027 have been inspected during the past fiscal year. The gain of 52 nurseries with an increase of 336 acres over the previous year, may be attributed to a growing demand for trees and plants. This improved condition has had the effect of stimulating greater interest in required precautionary measures against the many prevalent destructive pests and, on the whole, marks a gradual improvement in the nurseries.

PLANT PESTS IN ILLINOIS.

It is reported to me that Cedar Rust is prevalent in some parts of the State and the Department of Agriculture has made regulations with a view to confining this disease to the smallest area possible.

A survey for Flag Smut, affecting the great wheat fields of this State, disclosed 218 infested fields within an area of sixty square miles in Madison County and a new area of fifteen square miles with forty infested fields in St. Clair County. The strict enforcement of present quarantine regulations and the sowing of resistant varieties of wheat now available, appears to be the only course until immune varieties can be developed and acclimated to the infested region.

A threatened invasion of the corn belt by the dread European corn borer, which is spreading westward with amazing rapidity, is causing great anxiety among the farmers of Illinois. The State Division of Plant Industry has made personal field observations in the infested areas of Ohio and Canada, where this disease is now prevalent. It is hoped that effective measures may be found which will divert or impede its present course and progress.

Provision should be made for a continuation of steps for the eradication of these plant pests, which, if permitted to spread throughout the State, may result in a material curtailment of our food supply and heavy loss to the farmers of the State.

DIVISION OF ANIMAL INDUSTRY.

TUBERCULOSIS IN CATTLE.

Tuberculosis in cattle is demanding and receiving much attention. By co-operation between the Federal and State governments, rapid strides are being made to stamp out this dread disease.

Two plans are in operation by the states in conjunction with the Federal Bureau at this time—inspection by units of pure-bred herds, and by circum-scribed areas of suspected infection. Through the herd plan more than 100,000 animals have passed the first test and some 40,000 have been placed on the accredited list. In Illinois, eleven counties have adopted the area plan of co-operation and six of these have appropriated county funds to pay all expenses of veterinarians. It is expected several more counties will be co-operating under this plan by the middle of the year.

The indemnities paid to owners for cattle destroyed is divided equally between the Federal and State governments.

HOG CHOLERA.

An order was entered by the Superintendent of Animal Industry on August 13, 1917, permitting inoculation only by licensed veterinarians or by owners to whom permits had been issued by the State. Many protests were received against the enforcement of this order and it was evident that the hardship which the order entailed was out of proportion with its beneficial results.

Accordingly, on November 22, 1922, at my direction, a superseding order was issued permitting owners to immunize their hogs, provided all such cases were reported on forms provided for that purpose, to the Superintendent of Animal Industry. This new order, I believe, will operate to encourage more general and more prompt vaccination of exposed or suspected herds.

I believe that the eradication and control of tuberculosis and cholera are of vital import to the people, both from hygienic and economic stand-points, and I respectfully suggest to your Honorable Body a continuance of the liberal appropriations to the State Department of Agriculture for the purpose of reducing to the minimum the losses from these diseases.

DIVISION OF GAME AND FISH.

It is gratifying to note that this division of our State government, having charge of the propagation and rescue of fish, their distribution in lakes and streams, in addition to its work of enforcing fish and game laws, showed receipts greatly in excess of expenditures during the past two years.

This despite the expense incurred last spring, when several rescue crews salvaged enormous quantities of fish caught in the backwaters following the overflowing of the Mississippi and Illinois Rivers. Hundreds of truck loads were rescued at Beardstown, Meredosia and other points and returned to the Illinois River. Twenty-three carloads were distributed in other streams and lakes. Great quantities of confiscated fish were donated to State charitable institutions.

During the year 1922 it is estimated ten million wall-eyed pike, twelve million lake trout, two million black bass and 250,000 perch and sunfish were produced in the Spring Grove Hatchery and placed in State waters.

Fish are wholesome and economical food for all classes, and fishing as sport and recreation holds attraction for a vast percentage of our population. The State facilities for greater production should be increased by the building of more hatcheries.

Suggested amendments to the fish and game laws merit your attention, especially with reference to extending the closed season on quail and the removal of protection from certain animals by common consent classed as pests, and the renewal of a game fish protective law fixing the minimum size of fish that may legally be taken from waters, and a definite closed season at spawning time as a conservation measure.

STATE EXHIBITS AT FAIRS.

Through appropriations made by the Fifty-second General Assembly for the purpose, various departments of the State government have been able, for the first time, to make known to the people the scope of the varied activities in which the State is engaged. The benefits accruing to the various sections of the State through this very practical demonstration are incalculable. Through the exhibits of the State departments, instruction has been spread broadcast on the prevention of contagious disease, sanitation and hygiene, road building and maintenance, fish and game propagation, improved dairy and other agricultural methods, the selection, care and culture of seeds and the detection of fraudulent weights and measures.

The State has also cooperated with large number of fairs and exhibitions in conducting better baby conferences. These conferences, wherever held, have excited enthusiastic interest and undoubtedly if continued from year to year will result in benefit to the State by improving its future citizens. The humane care and management of the unfortunate wards of the State, and the varied activities in which they are engaged, have also been covered by interesting exhibits.

It is my suggestion that provision be made by the General Assembly for the continuation of this instructive and beneficial work.

DEPARTMENT OF PUBLIC HEALTH.

It is our duty to do everything possible to preserve life, prevent disease and promote public health. Necessity for preventive measures, better local health organizations, safe milk, pure water supply and a more strict enforcement of the law, especially with respect to the reporting of births and the control of venereal diseases, I emphasized in my Inaugural message.

In its effort to carry out this vital program, the Department of Public Health has produced results far surpassing anything in past years during a similar period. Statistics bear witness to this fact.

DEATHS DECREASE.

There were fewer deaths in Illinois in 1921, also in 1922, than for any year previous. Backed by figures of record, this means that there are approximately 15,000 more persons living in Illinois today than would now be alive had the mortality rate for the two years just past equalled that of the same period immediately preceding.

COMMUNICABLE DISEASES DECREASE.

Figures indicating the prevalence of communicable diseases show fewer cases by thousands in 1922 than for the preceding year, and the total number for the two years ending December 31, 1922, is less than for the year 1920.

BIRTH REPORTS INCREASED.

Our birth records now for the first time are recognized by federal authorities as being more than 90 per cent complete. Illinois recently was admitted to the United States Birth Registration Area after a thorough test. Authentic figures show an average of 40 more births reported daily in 1922 than ever before, this being an annual increase of more than 10 per cent.

DECREASE IN INFANT DEATHS.

Along with improvements in birth registration has come a marked decline in infant mortality. In 1920 the number of deaths under the age of one year was 96.5 per 1,000 live births reported, while for 1921 it was 81.1. This represents an actual decrease of 974 infant deaths.

SUMMARY.

The following facts show what the Department of Public Health was able to accomplish with the funds appropriated:

Successful campaigns for:

Birth registration.

Milk Pasteurization.

Vaccination against smallpox.

Control of venereal diseases.

Medical inspection of rural schools (first time).

Increase in specimen examinations.

Seven-fold broadening of infant and pre-school age child welfare program.

Extension of sanitary activities.

Malaria control following floods.

Cooperation with existing local governments.

Uniform and standard methods throughout.

Success attained along these and other lines constitute an expression of public demand for such service as is being rendered, and at the same time voices popular appreciation of the growing importance of public health facilities. Without them health conditions in the State doubtless would have been less favorable during the two years just past.

EDUCATION.

Our educational institutions form the foundation of good government and insure the well-being of our State. Their improvement should be constantly sought and their growth should be encouraged, for with them lies the future stability of our commonwealth.

To the importance of these facts no other State is more keenly alive than our own. Indeed, on the great question of education Illinois has been most generous. The cost, however, has become enormous. For instance:

The last General Assembly was very liberal in appropriating funds for educational purposes. They increased the school distributive fund from $12,114,000 to $16,114,000; the university fund from $5,513,000 to $9,211,265; the normal schools fund from $1,590,234 to $2,344,989, and other educational activities from $1,000,420 to $1,329,248 for the current biennium.

Altogether the increase in educational appropriations was 43 per cent over the appropriations voted by the Fifty-first General Assembly, while the increase in all other departmental activities, excepting roads, averaged only 25 per cent.

Reports from the several counties in the State show a total of over $97,000,000 collected locally during the past year, or 41 per cent of all general taxes, for school purposes. This makes Illinois' annual school bill a little over $111,500,000 out of a total of $235,467,435, the amount collected for all general taxes throughout the State.

While these amounts are exceedingly large, no one will deny that the money devoted to educational purposes is well spent. Nevertheless, the increased cost of schools and education to the State, and locally, is one of the main causes of the larger tax bills with which our citizens are presented from year to year.

The report of the Educational Commission authorized at the last session of the General Assembly which will be submitted to you, will, I am informed, point the way to further aid through a more equitable distribution of State school funds, and a better organization of the local units for both support and control.

Very properly and justly every Illinoisan is proud of our educational institutions, the common schools, State normal schools, and the university, and great care should be exercised to avoid action which will in any wise impair their usefulness.

MILITARY AND NAVAL DEPARTMENT.

The progress of the National Guard during the past biennium has been a period of substantial development.

Two years ago, the organized strength was approximately 3,000, with on regiment completely federalized. Today, we have a force of over 7,000 men, with four regiments of infantry, two regiments of artillery, two battalions of artillery, one squadron of cavalry, one engineer company, one signal company and one tank company, which are in a high state of efficiency—the organization of which is identical with that of the regular army, and each has received federal recognition at the hands of the War Department.

In 1921 and 1922 each of these organizations attended a camp of intensive training of fifteen days each, carrying out a course of instruction prescribed by the War Department and under the supervision of officers of the regular army, and their reports to the War Department as to the efficiency of the guard have been very satisfactory and compliment them on the progress they have made.

In addition to the fifteen days of intensive training given each year, a large portion of the National Guard was called out during the year 1922 to preserve law and order, and protect the life and property of the citizens of this State at Bloomington, Clinton and Joliet.

ILLINOIS COMMERCE COMMISSION.

Accomplishments by the Illinois Commerce Commission created by the Fifty-second General Assembly to succeed the Public Utilities Commission have demonstrated the wisdom of the legislature in making that change.

The law creating the Illinois Commerce Commission to succeed the Public Utilities Commission, became effective July 1, 1921.

This body has held a large number of rate hearings in Chicago, Springfield and at other points in the State. In fact, its records show that during the fiscal year ended June 30, 1922, the commission held no fewer than 1,329 separate hearings, and issued a total of 1,340 orders of various kinds. These figures do not include the hearing and adjustment of informal complaints, which run into the hundreds, nor do they include a total of 2,529 orders approving leases which came before the commission.

A very considerable number of direct rate decreases have been ordered within the course of the year. Notable among these is the so-called five-cent fare case of Chicago. Upon complaint of the city and its mayor, the members of this commission, when acting as members of the Public Utilities Commission, began the consideration of the application for a reduction of the fares of the surface lines of Chicago.

After exhaustive hearings the commission, on November 23rd, 1921, entered an order directing the surface lines to put in effect forthwith a fare of five cents for adults and three cents for children. This order was based upon the evidence submitted to the commission and had it been accepted in good faith, compliance therewith would I believe have been to the very great advantage of the utility itself, as well as to the people of Chicago. However, the utility concerned went to the federal court and secured an order restraining the commission from putting the five-cent fare order into operation.

Thereupon the commission proceeded to take further testimony and on July 6, 1922, entered an order directing the surface lines to put into effect, upon a fixed date, a six-cent fare for adults and half fare for children. Again the utility appealed to the federal court and secured a temporary restraining order. After argument before three judges sitting en banc, two of these judges joined in enjoining the commission from making this rate operative; but directed the Surface Lines company to put in effect a cash fare of seven cents for adults with an alternative of selling to all who desired to purchase them, tickets at the rate of three for twenty cents—a rate, in effect, of six and two-thirds cents per passenger. The third judge declined to join in this decision and expressed himself in favor of letting the six-cent fare order become effective.

Although in this effort in behalf of the people the commission failed to get the full measure of relief it believed should have been secured, nevertheless it reduced the cost of transportation to those who patronize the Surface Lines of Chicago (in the aggregate) between $7,500,000 and $10,000,000 per year.

The commission also cited the Chicago elevated lines to appear and defend the fares they were then charging, namely ten cents for single cash fares and eight and three-quarters cents where four tickets were purchased at one time. After various hearings and conferences a schedule of rates was put into effect whereby a rate of ten cents for a single cash fare was continued but the rate was reduced to eight and one-third cents for those who purchased three tickets at one time, and for experimental purposes a weekly pass costing the purchaser one dollar and twenty-five cents was authorized, under which constant users of elevated railway service reduce their fares as low as five cents per ride if the pass is used to its full extent.

While this plan has not been in operation long enough fully to test its advantages to the public, it has nevertheless been estimated that under it the patrons of the elevated lines in Chicago may secure savings which would aggregate several million dollars in the course of a year.

Another important reduction of rates was accomplished in the case of the Peoples Gas Light & Coke Company, a case begun by the commission upon its own motion. After various hearings and conferences in this case the commission established, and the company accepted, a net rate of one dollar per thousand for gas in Chicago to the ordinary consumer, which means an estimated saving on gas to such consumers of $3,500,000 per year or more over previous rates.

One of the most important hearings the commission has yet undertaken was that in relation to the rates and charges of the Illinois Bell Telephone Company, which was begun upon the commission's own motion and has not yet been concluded. The purpose of this hearing is to bring about a readjustment and reduction of rates not only in Chicago but throughout the State.

In addition to these larger cases—and they are larger only in the sense of the amount of property involved and the great number of persons affected by them—the commission has given relief to many other communities.

The construction of permanent roads has encouraged a large number of persons and corporations to undertake the operation of motor bus and motor truck lines for the transportation of persons and property. The authority of the commission to deal with these companies is not adequate for the protection of the public, therefore, it is recommended that the sections of the Illinois Commerce Commission Act dealing with this particular question be carefully and fully revised.

The revision of that part of the Illinois Commerce Commission Act which relates to the suspension of rates of public utility concerns is also recommended.

The commission early took hold of the grade crossing menace and constructive results have been achieved. There are approximately 9,000 grade crossings outside of city limits in Illinois, which are under the jurisdiction of the commission. Of these 3,700 are designated as extra hazardous and signs marking them as such have been erected.

A general hearing attended by state-wide highway commissioners and railroad officials has been held. As a result of such hearing a general order will be issued by the commission guarding these crossings as fully as the authority of the commission will permit.

I suggest revision of the law to give greater authority and increased powers to the commission along this line, in the exercise of their jurisdiction over grade crossings.

I desire, at this time, to urge upon the General Assembly renewal of my recommendation made in my Inaugural Message and on subsequent occasions, that a well considered plan of peoples' ownership and operation of street car lines at five-cent fare be enacted. This will provide, primarily, that the people of the city or community affected be afforded an opportunity to decide by their vote whether or not they desire to adopt a system of local transportation whereby they may be empowered to own and operate their street-car lines and establish the rates of fare.

DEPARTMENT OF LABOR.

The Department of Labor has three main functions:

First, the placement of workers in industry without cost to them and the supervision of employment agencies requiring a fee.

Second, the inspection of all workshops, factories and other institutions coming within the scope of the laws affecting the health, safety and comfort of the worker.

Third, in affiliation with the Industrial Commission of Illinois, the enforcement of the Workmen's Compensation Act.

Besides these specific functions there are general requirements placed upon the department having to do with the welfare of labor.

The various free employment offices have in total secured work for 239,078 workers without expense to the individuals.

Careful inspections have been made of practically all industries coming within the scope of the various laws administered by the department. A total of 263,611 inspections have been made during the past two years.

There has been a substantial increase in the number of cases heard by the Industrial Commission during the past two years, and the awards made by this commission totaled approximately $10,000,000.

The general offices of the Department of Labor have been extended successfully toward maintaining cordial relations between employer and employee.

EXECUTIVE EXPENDITURES.

For a statement of receipts and expenditures from funds subject to my order, your attention is directed to the biennial report of the Auditor of Public Accounts. Vouchers for all such expenditures are on file in the Auditor's Office.

In concluding, I wish to express my deep appreciation and gratitude to those State officers, heads of administrative departments and divisions, and employees who have co-operated with me in the outstanding achievements of the past two years. Only with their sympathetic and loyal assistance could I have hoped to accomplish the results of which we may all be justly proud.

Respectfully submitted,

The chairman or acting chairman of each committee of the House shall keep, or cause to be kept, a record in which there shall be entered.

17½. No committee shall sit during sessions of the House, without consent of the House.

BILLS.

18. When the roll shall be called for the first introduction of bills, each member may introduce three bills. And should the call be suspended by adjournment or otherwise, the calling of the roll shall be taken up when that order of business is reached, at the point at which it was discontinued, and this order shall be observed until the roll call shall be alphabetically completed. No bill shall be introduced at the expiration of three weeks, after the adoption of the permanent rules, except upon each Tuesday and except by Standing Committees of the House.

19. The Clerk shall indorse on every bill the number thereof, the name of the member introducing it, the date of the introduction, and the several orders taken thereon; and when printed, said several indorsements shall be printed at the head of the bill.

20. When a bill is introduced it shall be read by its title, ordered printed and referred to the proper committee for consideration. In the case of a bill which amends a prior statute, the author of the bill shall indicate the particular changes in the following manner:

1. All added or new words or figures to be underscored.

2. Omitted words or figures to be inserted but enclosed in brackets and crossed with a line.

3. When words or figures are omitted and new words or figures are substituted, the new matter to be underscored and the omitted matter to be inserted above the line enclosed in brackets and crossed with a line.

No bill shall be printed unless the provisions of this rule have been complied with. Bills shall be printed in conformity with this rule except that underscored parts shall be printed in italics.

21. The Clerk shall, as soon as any bill is printed, place the same in the postoffice boxes of the members; and printed bills shall be furnished to others than public officers and members of the General Assembly and the press only on the written order of the Speaker, the President and the President pro tem. of the Senate, and members of the General Assembly.

22. Amendments to bills may be offered at the conclusion of the second reading, and all amendments to bills, except amendments by striking out, shall be printed when adopted, and shall in like manner be deposited in the postoffice boxes of the members one day before such amended bill shall be read the third time.

23. After the second reading of the bill, and amendments, if any, the Speaker shall state the bill is ready to be ordered transcribed and typed for a third reading.

24. No subject matter shall be included in any conference committee report on an appropriation bill unless such subject matter directly relates to matters of difference between the Houses and has been specifically referred to the Conference Committee. No appropriation bill shall be passed and no report of any Conference Committee on an appropriation bill shall be considered unless the bill or report has been printed in its final form and placed on the desks of the members at least three legislative days prior to the final passage of the bill or the consideration of the report.

25. The vote on the full passage of all bills shall be by yeas and nays, upon each bill separately, and shall be entered upon the Journal, and when a bill shall fail to receive a constitutional majority upon its passage, the Speaker shall declare that the bill has failed to pass.

26. When an emergency is expressed in the preamble or body of an Act, as a reason why such Act should take effect prior to the first day of July next after its passage, and when such an Act contains a clause or proviso fixing such time prior to the first day of July, the question shall be, "Shall the bill pass?" and if decided affirmatively by a vote of two-thirds of the members elected to the House, then the bills shall be deemed passed; and, if, upon such vote a majority of said members elected, but less than two-thirds thereof, vote affirmatively on said question, then the vote on said bill shall be deemed reconsidered, and the bill subject to amendment by striking out such part thereof as expresses an emergency and the time of taking effect, and then said bill shall be under consideration upon its third reading, with the emergency clause and time of taking effect stricken out.

REFERENCES.

30. Appropriation bills which contain provisions relating to nothing else than the appropriation, and apportionment bills which contain provisions relating to nothing else than the apportionment, shall be in order in preference to any other bills unless otherwise ordered. All bills for appropriations of money from the State treasury, or providing for the expenditure of money when referred to other committees and by them reported back to the House with favorable recommendations, shall be referred to the Committee on Appropriations for its consideration before being finally acted upon by the House.

The Speaker may reserve any bill or resolution introduced of general State importance, or in case of emergency, on the Speaker's table and lay the same before the House; after the same has been printed, and with the consent of the House the same may be considered as in Committee of the Whole House, in the order in which such measures may be entered; otherwise, or upon the failure of the House to consent to such reference, the bill or resolution shall be referred to its appropriate committee; provided, however, that no bill or resolution may be considered in the Committee of the Whole House, until two days after the same shall have been printed and placed in the postoffice boxes of the members.

31. All questions relating to the priority of business to be acted upon, not otherwise provided for in these rules, shall be decided by the Speaker without debate.

32. When a question has been once made and carried in the affirmative or negative, it shall be in order for a member of the majority to move for a reconsideration thereof, or give notice that he will make such a motion within the time prescribed by these rules, for which time he shall control the motion. But no motion for the reconsideration of any vote shall be in order after a bill, resolution, message, report, amendment or motion, upon which the vote was taken, shall have gone out of the possession of the House; nor shall any motion for reconsideration be in order unless within the next day of actual session of the House: Provided, that should the member giving notice of a motion to reconsider, not make such motion within the time prescribed by the rule, any other member voting with the majority, may make such motion, within the next succeeding legislative day. Such motion shall take precedence of all other questions, except a motion to adjourn: And, provided, further, that when a bill has passed the House it shall require a constitutional majority to reconsider the vote by which the same was passed: And, provided, also, when a motion to reconsider, the vote by which a bill is passed is made, or a notice is given that such motion will be made within three days of the last legislative day of the session, it will then be in order for any member to move that such motion or notice of motion may be taken up and disposed of.

PRACTICE.

33. Upon the demand of five members, which may be oral or in writing and made before or after a viva voce vote, or before or after a division, the yeas and nays shall be taken on any question, and entered upon the Journal. Such demand shall be made before proceeding to other business.

34. Upon a call of the House for the yeas and nays on any question the names of the members shall be called in alphabetical order.

35. A motion to strike out the enacting words of a bill shall have the precedence of a motion to amend, and, if carried, shall be considered equivalent to its rejection.

36. No person shall visit or remain at the Clerk's desk, while the yeas and nays are being called, and in the performance of their duties, all clerks of the House shall be under the supervision and control of the Speaker.

37. A motion for commitment, until it shall be decided, shall preclude all amendments to the main question.

38. A motion to lay any particular proposition on the table shall apply to that particular proposition only.

39. No motion or proposition on a subject different from that under consideration shall be admitted under color of an amendment.

40. Every motion shall be reduced to writing, if the Speaker or any member desires it.

41. When a motion is made, it shall be stated by the Speaker, or if it be in writing, it shall be read aloud by the Clerk before debate thereon.

42. After a motion is stated by the Speaker, or read by the Clerk, it shall be considered in possession of the House, but may be withdrawn at any time before decision or amendment, by leave of the House.

43. Any member may call for a division of the question, when divisible, but a motion to strike out and insert shall be indivisible.

44. Whenever any member is about to speak in debate, or deliver any matter to the House, he shall rise and respectfully address himself to "Mr. Speaker," and confine himself to the question under debate, and avoid personality, and no motion shall be considered in order unless made from the seat occupied by the member.

45. When two or more members arise at once the Speaker shall name the member who is to speak first.

46. All questions, except as provided in rules 47 and 53, whether in the Committee of the Whole or in the House, shall be disposed of in the order in which they are moved, except that in filling up blanks the largest sum and the most remote day shall be the first put.

47. The rules of the House shall be observed in all committees as far as may be applicable.

48. When the committee reports a substitute for an original bill, with the recommendation that the substitute pass, it shall be in order to read the substitute a first time at once and order it printed.

49. Petitions, memorials and other papers addressed to the House may be presented by any member, who shall state briefly to the House the contents thereof, which may be received, read and referred on the same day.

50. No member shall speak longer than thirty minutes at one time, nor more than once on the same question, except by leave of the House; but the member who introduces a measure shall, in all cases, have the right to close the debate, and this right shall not be denied him even after the previous question has been ordered, although he may have spoken once on the same subject: Provided, the member so speaking shall not be allowed more time in all than is permitted by the rules of the House to other members.

51. While the Speaker is putting a question or addressing the House, or when a member is speaking no person shall walk out of or across the room, or pass between the member speaking and the Chair, or entertain private discourse.

52. If any member, in speaking or otherwise, transgresses the rules of the House the Speaker shall, or any member may, call him to order.

53. When a question is under debate no motion shall be received but—
To fix the time to which to adjourn.

To adjourn.

A call of the House.

To lay on the table.

The previous question.

To commit.

To postpone to a day certain.

To postpone to a day indefinitely.

To amend.

Which several motions shall have precedence in the order in which they are named; and no motion—

To postpone to a day certain.

To commit, or

To postpone indefinitely.

Being decided, again shall be allowed on the same day, or at the same stage of the bill or proposition.

Provided, that when a call of the House, or a roll call upon any bill, resolution or motion, shall disclose the fact that there is not a quorum present, then the following shall be the order of business—

A motion: To produce a quorum by compelling the attendance of absent members.

To fix the time to which to adjourn.

To adjourn.

A motion for a call of the House.

54. The rules of parliamentary practice comprised in Cushing's Parliamentary Rules and Practice, shall govern the House in all cases in which they are applicable and in which they are not inconsistent with the standing rules and orders of the House, or the joint rules of the Senate and House of Representatives.

55. If a question be lost by adjournment of the House, and revived on the succeeding day, no member who has spoken on the preceding day shall be permitted to speak again on the same question without leave.

56. Any two members shall have the liberty to dissent from, and protest, in respectful language, against any act or resolution which they shall think injurious to the public or any individual, and have the reasons of their dissent entered upon the Journal.

57. Questions shall be distinctly put in this form, viz: "As many as are of the opinion that" (as the case may be) "say 'Aye,'" and, after the affirmative vote is expressed, "As many as are of the contrary opinion say, 'No.'" If the Speaker doubts, or if a division be called for, the House shall divide; those in the affirmative shall first rise from their seats, and afterwards those in the negative.

58. In forming a Committee of the Whole House, the Speaker shall leave his chair, and a chairman to preside in the committee shall be appointed by the Speaker.

ADJOURNMENT.

59. The hour at which every motion to adjourn is made shall be entered on the Journal.

Ten o'clock in the morning shall be the standing hour to which the House shall adjourn unless otherwise ordered by a majority vote.

60. A motion to adjourn shall be decided without debate and not be subject to amendment.

61. No rule shall be suspended without the vote on roll call or division, of two-thirds of the members present, nor shall any rule be altered or amended without one day's notice being given on the motion thereof, and the vote on roll call of two-thirds of the members present, but any amendment or alteration having the approval of the Rules Committee may be adopted on roll call or division by a majority of the members elected.

PREVIOUS QUESTIONS.

62. The previous question shall be put in this form: "Shall the main question be now put?" and until it is decided shall preclude all amendments or debate. When it is decided that the main question shall now be put, the main question shall be considered as still remaining under debate.

The effect of the main question's being ordered shall be to put an end to all debate, and bring the House to a direct vote, first, upon all amendments reported or pending in the inverse order in which they are offered. After the motion for the previous question has prevailed, it shall not be in order to move for a call of the House unless it shall appear by yeas and nays, as taken on the main question, that no quorum is present; or to move to adjourn prior to a decision of the main question: Provided, if a motion to postpone is pending the only effect of the previous question shall be to bring the House to a vote upon such motion.

63. All resolutions or petitions calling for the appointment of committees, or involving the expenditure of money, and all orders in reference to the appointed employees, or the increase of compensation of employees, or the expenditures of moneys for incidental expenses of the session shall be referred to the Appropriation Committee without debate.

WHEREAS, The statutes governing taxation of insurance premiums are defective in various respects and result in permitting evasion through lack of proper means of enforcement so that attorneys for the companies subject to such taxes in one of their briefs in the Supreme Court admit that the unpaid taxes claimed to be due taxing bodies "amount to many times ten million dollars"; and,

WHEREAS, An increase of rates is threatened and is imminent if the unpaid taxes are collected and if the present taxes shall remain in force, similar to the arbitrary advance of ten per cent in 1918 which was retained although restitution was ordered in 1919 by resolution of the House of Representatives; and

E. A full investigation of any matter directly or indirectly connected with any of the subjects specifically mentioned herein.

Said committee shall report its conclusions, findings and recommendations as expeditiously as possible to the present General Assembly, and shall recommend such proposed legislation as may be deemed necessary, arising out of the subject matter of its inquiry.

For the purpose of conducting investigations, said committee is hereby authorized and empowered to subpoena witnesses under the signature of the chairman, to place under oath and examine witnesses, and to issue subpoenas duces tecum for witness or witnesses, and for such books, documents, papers, memoranda or things, as such committee shall deem necessary for its information in carrying out the objects and purposes of this resolution. The Speaker announced the appointment of Mr. Walker as a member of the Committee on Education.

A message from the Governor, by George D. Sutton, Secretary to the Governor:

Mr. Speaker—The Governor directs me to lay before the House of Representatives the following communication:

STATE OF ILLINOIS.

EXECUTIVE DEPARTMENT.

SPRINGFIELD, January 30, 1923.

To the Members of the Fifty-third General Assembly:

In compliance with the provisions of an Act approved on March 7, 1917, otherwise known as the Civil Administrative Code of Illinois, I transmit for the consideration of the General Assembly the third State budget.

This budget embraces the sums which I recommend to be appropriated for the respective State departments, offices, and institutions, and for other public purposes for use during the two fiscal years beginning July 1, 1923, and ending on June 30, 1925. It includes also the estimated revenues from taxation, the estimated revenues from sources other than taxation, and an estimate of the amount required to be raised by taxation.

As required by law, I have included in the budget the estimates of receipts and expenditures of the elective officers in the executive and judicial departments and of the University of Illinois.

Respectfully submitted,

LEN. SMALL.

LETTER OF TRANSMITTAL.

Springfield, Illinois,
January 1, 1923.

SIR: The Third State Budget prepared by the Department of Finance under the provisions of the Civil Administrative Code is respectfully submitted herewith.

In the arrangement of the tables the grand summaries appear first, followed by division summaries and details. In the grand summaries the appropriations and estimates are divided into two groups. The first group includes the appropriations and estimates for the ordinary expenses of the State government which are payable from the General Revenue Fund, and the appropriations and estimates payable from the special funds in the State treasury derived from direct property taxes for

- (a) The University of Illinois;
- (b) The State school distributive fund.

Appropriations and estimates for the University of Illinois appear in two items, the special University of Illinois Fund being exceeded by the appropriations and estimates, and the balance becoming necessarily a charge against the General Revenue Fund.

The second group includes appropriations and estimates payable from funds derived from sources other than taxes, as follows:

- (a) Retirement of and interest on bonds;
- (b) Highway construction and maintenance, payable from funds derived from automobile and chauffeur license fees; Federal allotments, and the sale of bonds, both the principal and interest of said bonds to be paid from funds derived from automobile and chauffeur license fees.
- (c) Illinois waterway construction, payable from funds derived from the sale of bonds;
- (d) Payment of the soldiers' adjusted compensation, payable from funds derived from the sale of bonds;
- (e) Working capital, payable from funds derived from the sale of prison and other institution products;
- (f) Expenses of the Division of Fire Prevention, payable from a special tax on fire insurance premiums;
- (g) Operation and maintenance of the Illinois and Michigan Canal, payable from canal receipts.

In comparing the totals of the first group, ordinary expense, the amounts approved show a very marked reduction from the gross sum appropriated by the last General Assembly, which amounted to $85,498,759. After eliminating the amounts vetoed, aggregating $6,140,492, there remained a net total appropriated by the Fifty-second General Assembly of $79,358,267. Estimates which have been received from the offices, departments and agencies of the State government and assembled in this group (together with fixed charges included by this Department), total $82,250,510, and the same estimates after revision, and which are herewith approved and submitted for your consideration, amount to $72,079,470. This is a reduction comparing the amounts recommended with the gross appropriations of the last General Assembly, of $13,419,289, before vetoes, and a reduction of $7,278,797 compared with the net appropriations passed by the Fifty-second General Assembly and approved by the Governor. In this group the reduction of amounts approved, compared with the estimates as received, is $10,171,040 and it is our judgment that the amounts approved are sufficient to properly conduct all the departments of the State government during the next biennium.

During the unusual economic situation brought about by the war, salary increases were the rule. Our recommendations at this time are that salary increases shall be the exception. Consideration has been given to the increased number of people to be taken care of in our State charitable and penal institutions, and to the expansion of existing activities.

FEDERAL AID.

The budget estimates provide for the continuation of existing appropriations made to carry on activities in conjunction with bureaus of the United States government and other activities financed with funds derived in whole or in part from "Federal Aid". There is a growing conviction that a separation between the Federal and State government would bring about more efficiency and economy in operation. The General Assembly of the State of Illinois has not accepted the terms of the Sheppard-Towner Act for maternity and infancy welfare, and this budget does not include a recommendation that this be done. The validity of this Act is being tested in the Supreme Court of the United States in action brought by the State of Massachusetts, and the decision will have a far-reaching effect on these so-called "Federal Aid" activities. There are now being carried on in this State activities under the Federal Aid plan as follows: Crop reports; eradication of bovine tuberculosis; topographic surveys; vocational education; rehabilitation of persons injured in industry; the federalized National Guard; and the construction of highways.

The estimates and appropriations included in the second group show no increase for the University of Illinois nor the State school distributive fund. However, a larger amount is included for interest on waterway bonds which will be necessary as soon as construction develops to an extent requiring the sale of more bonds. There is also included in this group an estimate of appropriations necessary for the retirement and interest on soldiers' compensation bonds. This is a new item, and having received a favorable vote at the election held November 7, 1922, becomes a fixed charge. Unless some special form of taxation is devised to raise approximately four million dollars per annum to meet this expense, it will be necessary to include approximately ten cents on each hundred dollars assessed value of taxable property in each tax levy for the next twenty years, to meet the interest and retire bonds.

The appropriations and estimates included in the third group show an increase for highway construction and maintenance and for working capital in the various State industries and the new item for the payment of adjusted compensation.

ELECTIVE STATE OFFICERS.

The law provides that the budget include the estimates of the elective State officers, and gives the Department of Finance power to revise the estimates received. This brings about a rather difficult situation. Under our form of government each elective State officer is responsible for certain public duties directly to the General Assembly and to the electorate. The Department of Finance is charged by law with certain duties concerning the finances of those departments under the Civil Administrative Code and other agencies of the State whose vouchers must be approved by this department before payment, but we have no contact with the finances of the elective

State officers, the courts, or the University of Illinois and their estimates can only be handled on the very broad lines of general policy as applied to code departments.

In the budget herewith presented the approved estimates for those activities for which we have direct responsibility show a decrease compared with the appropriations of two years ago. Following this policy we have reduced the estimates received from the elective State officers following the general plan of few increases in salaries, no new activities, and a reduction in totals. The estimates for the elective State officers, the courts and the University of Illinois are herewith submitted with the above explanation.

RESERVE FUND.

No part of the Reserve Fund of $500,000 appropriated by the Fifty-second General Assembly was used, because same was held to be unconstitutional by the Supreme Court. We are including a like sum for the next biennium, in such form as we believe conforms to the decision of the Court.

DEFICIENCIES.

The last General Assembly was called upon to appropriate $2,250,000 for a deficiency in the operating account of the charitable and penal institutions, also other deficiencies making a total of $2,640,414.00.

The recommendation herewith include $176,078 for deficiencies as follows:

Diphtheria antitoxin	$ 35,000
Riot and strike duty.....	120,428
Chicago Grain Office.....	12,000
State Treasurer	8,650

Total$176,078

and had the appropriation for reserve been available, the deficits in the code and military departments could have been easily met.

GENERAL ASSEMBLY.

The summary shows a decrease of appropriations for the General Assembly compared with the aggregate appropriated at the last session. This is due to the fact that the last session appropriated for the incidental expenses of both the Fifty-second and Fifty-third General Assemblies. This duplication of appropriations explains the reduction. The figures are included for the single purpose of making the budget a complete summary of needed expenditures for all branches of the State government.

SALARIES AND WAGES.

Appropriated by 52nd General Assembly.....	$22,400,590
Estimates approved	22,434,129

The amount recommended to be appropriated for "Salaries and Wages" shows an increase compared with the appropriations of the last General Assembly. A considerable increase in the number of inmates of the charitable and penal institutions requires a larger force. However, in this division no increase in the salary schedule is provided, the increase in amount being due to the increase in the number of employees. The total appropriations for salaries and wages is $22,434,129, and is to-wit 44 per cent of the total appropriations recommended, payable from the General Revenue Fund. Great inequality exists and should be remedied, and we believe that a proper adjustment of wages and salaries would be of great benefit to the State, and to that end we recommend a re-enactment of the law creating the Salary Investigation Committee created by the last General Assembly.

The estimates included for the payment of the salaries of some of the officers of the code departments show a variation from the appropriations of the Fifty-second General Assembly and also a variation between the two years in the next biennium. This is occasioned by a decision of the Supreme Court holding that increases in salaries for these offices, enacted by the Fifty-second General Assembly, could not be drawn by any incumbent of these offices, until after the beginning of a new term of office, which will date from the next inauguration. Following this ruling the estimates for appropriations for these positions are based on the rates now being paid according to the ruling with provision for the full rate, beginning in January, 1925.

OFFICE EXPENSES.

Appropriated by 52nd General Assembly.....	$1,247,782
Estimates approved	1,238,319

One of the largest items in "Office Expenses" is rent, which totals to-wit: $461,478 for the biennium. It was expected that upon the completion of the Centennial Building some of the activities now paying rent could be housed in State-owned buildings; however, taking all possible housing changes into consideration the appropriation for "Office Expenses" must remain practically the same.

TRAVEL.

Appropriated by 52nd General Assembly.....	$1,584,080
Estimates approved	1,439,320

Based on the expenditures from this appropriation for the past two years the present recommendations show a decrease compared with former appropriations. This expense has been steadily increasing to meet cost of hotel accommodations, railroad fare, etc.; however, we believe that all necessary traveling may be done, by continuing the careful use of such funds.

OPERATION.

Appropriated by 52nd General Assembly.....	$10,346,852
Estimates approved	11,082,810

Of this estimate $8,586,850 is for use of the charitable and penal institutions and is to provide food, clothing, fuel, medicine and similar living expenses. Prices of such commodities have shown a considerable decrease since the war. However, at present, prices are stiffening and in view of the fact that more and more people are to be cared for in the State institutions each year, a small increase is asked. The appropriations made by the last General Assembly for the present biennium have been barely sufficient and only by the very careful management of the State institutions has a deficit been avoided.

REPAIRS AND EQUIPMENT.

Appropriated by 52nd General Assembly.....	$2,886,193
Estimates approved	2,620,496

Sufficient appropriations are approved to keep the buildings and equipment of the State in an economical state of repair and for the purchase of what is considered necessary additional equipment.

PERMANENT IMPROVEMENTS.

Appropriated by 52nd General Assembly.....	$7,328,778
Estimates approved	2,118,950

The building program included in the budget shows a decrease compared with the last biennium. However, the most needed buildings are included and if the appropriations herewith approved are granted a creditable advance will be made in meeting the demands on the State.

STATE SCHOOL DISTRIBUTIVE FUND.

Appropriated by 52nd General Assembly.....	$16,000,000
Estimates approved	16,000,000

A continuation of this appropriation is included in this budget. However, the Illinois Educational Commission created by the last General Assembly will report to the Fifty-third General Assembly and their recommendations will be considered.

The method of raising and distributing this fund has met with some criticism. It is maintained that by some other basis of distribution the same or a smaller amount would do more good. However, until the laws are changed on this matter, it is recommended that the amount of the Distributive Fund remain at not to exceed $8,000,000 per annum.

WORKING CAPITAL.

Appropriated by 52nd General Assembly.....	$2,500,000
Estimates approved	3,000,000
Amount paid into State treasury fiscal year ending June 30, 1922	649,404

The operation of the industries at the State prisons and, in a smaller way, several of the other institutions, has been successfully conducted under the present law pertaining to the Industrial Revolving Fund. Previous to this provision the money derived from the sale of products manufactured at the penal institutions was received and disbursed without appropriation. Such funds now are remitted to the State treasury and paid into a special fund designated "Working Fund." The General Assembly is asked to appropriate $3,000,000 for the next biennium on the prospect that the sum paid into this fund by the various institutions will aggregate that amount. It is expected that the volume of business will be materially increased during the next two years. The occupancy of the new Illinois State Penitentiary will permit considerable expansion of the industries. This appropriation does not enter into the tax problem in any way, the $3,000,000 being an estimate of the maximum collections during the next biennium.

GENERAL REVENUE FUND.

The receipts other than direct property tax of the State for the fiscal year ending June 30, 1922, amounted to $16,434,214, including $3,030,972 for Inheritance Tax, Illinois Central Franchise Tax, $3,134,291, Corporation Organization and Franchise Tax, $3,830,246, Insurance Tax, $3,312,393 and miscellaneous department fees and earnings. Property tax receipts for the same period totaled $5,045,637, making the total receipts $21,479,851.

CONCLUSION.

The financial program provided in the budget herewith transmitted, showing a decrease compared to former appropriation periods, has only been made possible through the diligence and cooperation of the many officers and employees of the State government. The Department of Finance has had presented to it plans whereby additional funds could be appropriated and expended to advantage. We have had in mind the curtailment of expenditures consistent with efficiency and thus reduce the burden of taxation. We have adhered to no arbitrary policy and have sought to recommend according to necessary requirements, mindful of the amount required to meet the soldiers' compensation payments approved by the people last November.

This budget has been carefully prepared and includes all appropriations and re-appropriations of the Fifty-second General Assembly and all known demands upon the Fifty-third General Assembly with the possible exception of re-appropriation of funds appropriated for "Permanent Improvements", the necessity and amounts of which cannot be ascertained at this time.

propriations as well as bond issues, upon the taxpayers, is one of the vital problems confronting the legislative representatives of the people; and

WHEREAS, It is a well-known fact that corporations organized under the laws of this State, or authorized by the State to carry on business therein, as depositories or forwarders of moneys, are in possession of large amounts of deposits and funds that are unclaimed and whose owners and their whereabouts are unknown; and

WHEREAS, Where such unclaimed deposits and moneys otherwise obtained are remaining with such corporations for long periods of time and the same are practically appropriated by and to all intents and purposes become the property of such corporations or other depositories or forwarding agencies; and

WHEREAS, Such unclaimed moneys should and ought of right to become the property of the State of Illinois or proper legal provision made for disposition in efforts to restore the same to the owners or their beneficiaries as the case may be; be it therefore,

WHEREAS, Twenty-five years of epoch making history have passed since the United States of America declared war against the Kingdom of Spain; a period in which the Republic has developed into a great world power, the wealthiest and most influential nation in the world—a people who never engaged in war, except for a just cause but who have by force of arms liberated the oppressed and toiling masses of mankind in many lands throughout the world, from the rule of monarchs and substituted government by the people and for the people; and

WHEREAS, The State of Illinois was represented by many thousands of her sons in the service of the United States, as soldiers and sailors; men who proved by their record of achievement to be worthy of the traditions of those heroic sons of Illinois in former wars; their names appear upon the honor rolls of Dewey at Manilla Bay, Schley at Santiago and their furied battle flags bear the inscriptions of victories in Cuba, Porto Rico and the Philippine Island;

WHEREAS, The People of Illinois are desirous of doing honor to the veterans of the Spanish American War, preserve the memories of the victories, events and incidents of this service as an example in patriotism for coming generations and to express the gratitude of the State to those of her sons who responded to the call of the President, as volunteers, sacrificing the comforts of home, and life itself, in the cause of the Nation, which in this war was for the liberty of our neighbor; therefore, be it

Resolved, by the House of Representatives, the Senate concurring herein, That the Governor be requested to issue a proclamation to the people of the State of Illinois, calling upon them to observe by patriotic assembly and otherwise the following days during the year 1923, as commemorative of the twenty-fifth anniversary of the Spanish American War:

But the General Assembly shall have no power to propose amendments to more than three articles of this Constitution at the same session, nor to the same article oftener than once in four years. WHEREAS, The establishment of a State Police is again proposed at this session of the General Assembly by Senate Bill No. 49; and

WHEREAS, Concerning this proposed piece of legislation there has been a decided variety of opinion; by many it was thought a greatly needed means of coping with crime and criminals, others fought it bitterly as a military force intended to oppress and coerce labor; and

WHEREAS, It appears that a true and accurate understanding of the results secured by, and effects of the creation of a State Police can only be secured by a first-hand investigation in the states where such organizations have been established; now, therefore, be it

Resolved, by the House of Representatives of the Fifty-third General Assembly, the Senate concurring herein, That a joint Legislative Committee be created, to consist of five members from the Senate appointed by the President of the Senate upon the recommendation of the Executive Committee, and five members from the House of Representatives appointed by the Speaker thereof.

It is the duty of this committee to investigate in the States of New York, New Jersey, Pennsylvania, and Michigan, and by personal interviews conducted with state and other governmental and law enforcing officials and citizens representing the different trades, occupations, professions, classes and stations in life, ascertain the extent to which the residents of those states favor or oppose the establishment of a state police force.

Said committee is authorized to require any person or persons to cause to be submitted to said committee, or any person duly authorized to act for it, for inspection and examination, any books, paper, documents or letters, of any character, kind or description.

Such committee is authorized to employ such assistance as it may require, including the employment of clerical, statistical, technical, legal and accounting experts. Said committee and the members thereof shall be entitled to actual expenses incurring in the performance of the duties enjoined by this resolution; and, be it further

HOUSE RESOLUTION NO. 32.

WHEREAS, A certain daily newspaper, published in the city of Chicago, recently published an article reporting the State Treasurer Hon. Oscar Nelson, upon assuming the duties of his office and taking into his custody the funds, books, and other property of the State treasury, refused to accept from the former State Treasurer, Hon. Edward E. Miller, a bank deposit of two hundred thousand dollars of the State's money in the First State and Savings Bank at Wood River, Illinois, which bank had failed; and

WHEREAS, It is reported that a sum of money, two thousand dollars or more, alleged to have been paid by a person or persons in the interest of the said bank or some official or officials thereof to a third person to act as a go-between for obtaining from the former State Treasurer Hon. Edward

E. Miller, for the said bank, the said deposit of two hundred thousand dollars; and

WHEREAS, State Treasurer Hon. Oscar Nelson did not at the time of assuming the duties of his office nor has he at any time since, reported to the General Assembly the fact that the transfer of the State's funds from the said Hon. Edward E. Miller to the said Hon. Oscar Nelson was not complete; now, therefore, be it

Resolved, by the House of Representatives of the Fifty-third General Assembly, That the House Committee on Appropriations make an investigation of the charges contained in the said newspaper item and other reports and ascertain why State Treasurer Hon. Oscar Nelson has not reported or does not report that the transfer of the State's money from the said Hon. Edward E. Miller to the said Hon. Oscar Nelson is not complete, and if a satisfactory explanation is not forthcoming from the said Hon. Oscar Nelson and if the failure to fully turn over the State's money to the present State Treasurer continues, that the said Committee on Appropriations make a speedy and complete investigation of such failure on the part of the said Hon. Edward E. Miller to turn over to the said State Treasurer the said money or any other moneys and immediately report the results thereof to the House of Representatives, together with its recommendations as to the proper action to be taken.

For the purpose of conducting such investigation the Committee on Appropriations is hereby authorized to subpoena witnesses under the signature of the chairman of such committee, to examine such witnesses under oath and to issue subpoena duces tecum for witnesses and for such books, documents, papers, memoranda or things as such committee may deem necessary for its information in carrying out the object of the investigation.

Mr. Benson offered the following resolution, which was ordered to lie on the Speaker's table:

HOUSE RESOLUTION No. 33.

WHEREAS, A general election was held in the State of Illinois on November 7, 1922, at which Congressmen at Large were elected from this State; and,

WHEREAS, The Honorable Richard Yates and the Honorable Henry R. Rathbone, candidates for said office openly declared themselves to be against any weakening of the Volstead Act by the sale of beer and wine, and for strict enforcement of the Eighteenth Amendment to the Constitution of the United States; and,

WHEREAS, Mr. Simon J. Gorman and Mr. William Murphy, opposing candidates for said office ran on a strictly wet platform, advocating the manufacture and sale of beers and wines and promising, if elected, to vote for an amendment to the Volstead Act to permit such manufacture and sale, making this their chief issue and systematically and thoroughly circularizing and campaigning the State with that as the paramount plank in their platform; and,

WHEREAS, At said election the voters of Illinois, both men and women, heartily endorsed the prohibition enforcement stand taken by Messrs. Yates and Rathbone, as aforesaid, so that they were elected by the decisive pluralities of 277,101 and 245,016, respectively, to represent the people of this State as Congressmen at Large in the Congress of the United States; and,

WHEREAS, The Volstead Law can only be amended or repealed by appropriate action by an amendment of Congress; and,

WHEREAS, A beer and wine referendum was also held in this State on November 7th which referendum was in direct contravention to the Constitution of the United States and under the law of Illinois could not be binding upon the voters, hence was a mere straw vote and known to be of no force or effect, which said straw vote has been given undue publicity as liquor propaganda; therefore, be it

Resolved, by the House of Representatives of the General Assembly of the State of Illinois, That the Clerk of this House forward a copy of this resolution to the presiding officer of both Houses of the National Congress and to each member of Congress elected from the State of Illinois; and, be it further

Resolved, That the Secretary of State be and he is hereby directed to forward to the Vice President of the United States, as presiding officer of the United States Senate, and to the Speaker of the House of Representatives a complete tabulation showing the returns by counties for the respective candidates for Congressmen at Large as hereinabove referred to for the purpose of calling to the attention of that Honorable Body the real attitude of the voters of the State of Illinois on the question of the legalization of the sale of beer and wine as evidenced by this State-wide referendum held in Illinois which the voters knew would be of binding effect in that the candidates elected would go to Congress with their votes and influence to directly aid in defeating any amendment for the sale of beers and wines, and further to use their votes and influence to make adequate appropriations for the rigid enforcement of the Prohibition Amendment to the Constitution of the United States.

Mr. Hoar offered the following resolution, and asked and obtained unanimous consent to suspend the rules for its immediate consideration:

WHEREAS, Mr. McCarthy was the father of Hon. Frank A. McCarthy, a member of this body; and,

Resolved, by the House of Representatives of the Fifty-third General Assembly, That we express our deep regret at the loss to the State of Illinois and to his community, of one of its honored and respected citizens; and that we tender to his family our sincere and profound sympathy in their loss; and, be it further

Resolved, That this preamble and resolution be spread on the records of the House; that a suitably engrossed copy thereof be forwarded to the family; and, as a further mark of respect to his memory, that the House do now adjourn.

Resolved, by the House of Representatives, the Senate concurring herein, That the following be adopted as the Joint Rules of the House of Representatives and the Senate of the Fifty-third General Assembly of the State of Illinois:

JOINT RULES.

1. When a message shall be sent from the Senate to the House of Representatives, it shall be announced at the door of the House by the Door-keeper, and shall be respectfully communicated to the Chair by the person by whom it may be sent.

2. The same ceremony shall be observed when messages shall be sent from the House of Representatives to the Senate.

3. Messages shall be sent by such persons as a sense of propriety in each House may determine to be proper.

4. In every case of disagreement between the two Houses, if either House requests a conference, and appoint a committee for that purpose, the other House shall appoint a committee to confer therewith upon the subject of their disagreement. But no subject matter shall be included in any conference committee report on an appropriation bill unless such subject matter directly relates to matters of difference between the Houses and has been specifically referred to the Conference Committee. Said committee shall meet at a convenient time to be agreed upon by their chairmen, and, having conferred freely, each shall report to its respective House the result of their conference. In case of an agreement the report shall be first made, with the papers referred accompanying it, to the disagreeing House, and there acted upon. But no appropriation bill shall be passed and no report of any Conference Committee on an appropriation bill shall be considered unless the bill or report has been printed in its final form and placed on the desks of the members at least three legislative days prior to the final passage of the bill or the consideration of the report. And such action shall be immediately reported by the Clerk to the other House, the papers referred accompanying the message. In case of disagreement, the papers shall remain with the House which referred them. The agreeing report of a Conference Committee shall be made, read and signed in duplicate by all members of the committee, or by a majority of those of each House, one of the duplicates being retained by the committee of each House. Should either House disagree to the report of the committee, such House shall appoint a second committee and request a second conference, which shall be acceded to by the other House before adhering. The motion for a committee of conference, and the report of such committee, shall be in order at any time. When both Houses shall have adhered to their disagreement, a bill or resolution is lost.

5. While bills are on their passage between the two Houses they shall be accompanied by a message signed by the Secretary or Clerk (as the case may be) respectively.

6. After a bill has passed both Houses, it shall be transcribed and typed before it is presented to the Governor.

7. When bills are transcribed and typed, they shall be examined by a joint committee, which shall consist of five members, two from the Senate and three from the House, to be appointed by the Senate and the Speaker of the House respectively. The clerk of the Committee on Enrolling, Transcribing and Typing of Bills of the respective Houses shall act as clerk of the committee whenever their services are required. Said committee shall carefully compare the transcribed and typed bills with the engrossed bills, so passed by both Houses, correct any errors which may be discovered in the enrolled bills, and make their report forthwith to their respective Houses; the Secretary or Clerk having previously certified on the margin of the roll in which House it originated.

8. After examination and report, each bill shall be signed in the respective Houses, by the Speaker of the House of Representatives and by the President of the Senate.

9. After a bill shall have been signed by the President of the Senate and Speaker of the House of Representatives, it shall be presented by said Joint Committee to the Governor for his approval. The said committee shall report the day of presentation to the Governor to each House, which time shall be carefully entered on the Journals of each House.

10. All resolutions and memorials which are to be presented to the Governor shall be previously enrolled, examined, signed and presented to the Joint Committee, reported, and entry made thereof, as provided in case of bills.

11. When a bill or resolution which shall have passed one House is rejected in the other, information thereof shall be given to the House in which the same shall have passed.

12. When the consideration of any bill, memorial, or resolution, which has originated in one House shall be postponed in the other to a day so distant that it shall not be taken up again by the present session, the House in which such bill, memorial or resolution shall have originated shall be forthwith informed of such postponement.

13. When a bill, memorial or resolution which has passed one House is rejected in the other, it shall not again be introduced during the same session, except in the House so rejecting, and after three days' notice and leave of that House.

14. Each House shall transmit to the other all papers on which any bill or resolution shall be founded.

15. While the two Houses are acting together upon elections, or on any other matter, the Speaker shall preside, and all questions of order shall be decided by him, subject to an appeal to both Houses, as though but one body was in session. A call of members of either House may be had in joint meeting by order of the House in which the call is desired, and to constitute a quorum of the joint assembly, a majority of all the members elected to both Houses shall be present and voting.

16. Motions to postpone or adjourn shall be decided by a joint vote of both Houses, and yeas and nays upon such motions, if required shall be entered upon the Journals of both Houses.

17. Upon questions arising requiring the separate decision of either House, the Senate shall withdraw until the decision is made. Provided, that questions upon motions for a call of either House shall not come within the provisions of this rule.

18. Each House shall have the liberty of ordering the printing of bills, messages and reports without the consent of the other.

19. Whenever any message, bill, report or document shall be ordered to be printed by the Senate or House, for the use of both Houses, it shall be the duty of the Secretary of the Senate or Clerk of the House (as the case may be) immediately to report the fact of the passage of such order to the other branch of the General Assembly, together with the number so ordered to be printed in case the same shall exceed 300.

WHEREAS, From said report as transmitted to the Adjutant General it was apparent that there would be an outbreak among the strikers and the destruction of life and property; and

WHEREAS, It is apparent that if troops had been sent to Herrin, Illinois, when the conditions were reported to the Adjutant General, the said riot and consequent deaths would have been averted; and

WHEREAS, The out-come of these disturbances was that a number of miners at the Lester Strip Mine and several miners who were on strike at the time were killed in a battle which took place at the mouth of said mine; and

WHEREAS, The causes of that disaster should be inquired into, and the facts brought to light in the interest of the citizens of Williamson County and the citizens of the State of Illinois; now therefore be it

Resolved, by the House of Representatives of the Fifty-third General Assembly, That a committee of seven members be appointed by the Speaker of the House of Representatives to investigate conditions in Williamson County and particularly inquire into the riots and disorders which occurred in that county on June 21, 1922.

State Banking Law have been derelict in their duty or there is a serious defect in the law itself; therefore, be it

Resolved, That the Chicago Clearing House Association be requested to appoint a Committee to investigate the Chicago office of the State Auditor of Public Accounts, and that the necessary moneys to conduct such an investigation be appropriated; and be it further Ordered that the title be as aforesaid and that the Clerk inform the Senate thereof and ask their concurrence therein.

Mr. O'Grady rose to a question of personal privilege and offered the following communication, which was read at large and ordered incorporated in the Journal of the House:

Office of the

CLEARING HOUSE COMMITTEE

Chicago, Ill., March 17, 1923.

Honorable Thomas J. O'Grady, The Capitol, Springfield, Illinois.

Dear Sir—As vice-chairman of the Chicago Clearing House Association, I desire to state in the absence of the chairman, that the statement given out by Charles H. Meyer, Clearing House Examiner, to the Chicago newspapers on March 12th, commenting on the banking situation in Chicago and criticising the Chicago office of the Auditor of Public Accounts and the National bank examiners of the Chicago district, was not sanctioned or in any way approved by the Clearing House Association or any member of the Clearing House Committee of that Association.

On the contrary, the Clearing House Committee feels that the Chicago office of the State Auditor under the present examiner in charge has done excellent and constructive work in connection with the banking situation in Chicago. They have, however, felt for some years past that the State Auditor was not given sufficient funds to enable the employment of as many and competent assistant examiners as was desirable in view of the growing number of banks in Chicago. They have in the past called this to the attention of various members of former General Assemblies but without result.

This letter is sent to you because you have introduced a resolution in the General Assembly for an investigation of the Chicago office of the State Auditor based upon the assumption that the Clearing House Committee, or the Chicago Clearing House Association has criticised the conduct of that office under the present examiner in charge, Mr. Henry S. Savage, and we desire to let you know that the Clearing House Committee and the Chicago Clearing House Association have no criticism to make on the conduct of the Chicago office of the State Auditor by Mr. Savage and believe that he has done as well as any man could with the limited funds made available by former General Assemblies.

A copy of this letter is being sent to Mr. Russel.

Yours very truly,

(Signed) F. O. WETMORE, Vice-Chairman.

Office of the

CLEARING HOUSE COMMITTEE

Chicago, Ill., March 17, 1923.

Mr. Andrew J. Russel, Auditor of Public Accounts, State of Illinois, Springfield, Illinois.

My Dear Mr. Russel—In the absence of Mr. Reynolds, the chairman of the Chicago Clearing House Committee, I desire to express to you my regret for the statement which Mr. Charles H. Meyer, the Clearing House Examiner, recently gave to the Press and in which he reflected against the conduct of your Chicago office.

This statement, I understand, induced the Honorable Thomas J. O'Grady to introduce a resolution in the State Legislature asking the appointment of a committee to investigate the office of bank examinations and we have therefore in justice to your office written to Mr. O'Grady as per enclosed copy.

Mr. Meyer's statement was not sanctioned or approved by any member of the Clearing House Association, and on its appearance in the Press we expressed to him our vigorous disapproval of his action.

I regret that the action of one of our officers may have caused you some embarrassment, and, apologizing for it, remain,

Sincerely yours,

(Signed) F. O. WETMORE, Vice-Chairman.

Mr. O'Grady thereupon, by unanimous consent, withdrew House Resolution No. 39, offered by him on March 14th.

The House proceeding on the order of resolutions. Mr. Thon offered the following resolution, which was referred to the Committee on Judiciary:

HOUSE JOINT RESOLUTION No. 24.

Article XIV, Section 2. Amendments to this Constitution may be proposed in either House of the General Assembly, and if the same shall be voted for by three-fifths of all the members elected to each of the two houses, such proposed amendments together with the ayes and nays of each house thereon, shall be entered in full on their respective journals and said amendments shall be submitted to the electors of this State for adoption or rejection at the next election of members of the General Assembly, in such manner as may be prescribed by law. The proposed amendments shall be published in full at least three months preceding the election and if a majority of the electors voting thereon shall vote for the proposed amendments, they shall become a part of this Constitution, if the affirmative vote thereon be not less than thirty per cent of the total number voting at the election, and if the total vote thereon both affirmative and negative be not less than one-half of the total number voting at the election.

At the hour of 12:40 o'clock p. m., Mr. Little moved that the House do now adjourn.

The motion prevailed.

And the House stood adjourned.

Section 1. The power of taxation shall never be surrendered, suspended or contracted away. All taxes shall be levied and collected only under general law and for public purposes. Taxes levied for State purposes shall never be released, discharged or commuted. The specification herein of objects and subjects of taxation shall not deprive the General Assembly of the power to require other objects or subjects to be taxed in such manner as may be consistent with the principles of taxation fixed in this constitution.

Taxes may be imposed on privileges, franchises and occupations, uniform as to class.

The General Assembly shall provide for the levying of taxes upon property by valuation so that every person or corporation shall pay a tax in proportion to the value of his or its property, such value to be ascertained by some person or persons to be elected or appointed in such manner as the General Assembly shall direct and not otherwise.

Sec. 2. In lieu of any tax on intangible property or any kind or class thereof, by valuation, the General Assembly may provide a uniform and substantial tax on the income derived therefrom. The rate of such tax shall be uniform on all incomes taxed under this section.

Sec. 3. A general income tax may be imposed upon all net incomes, such income tax may be graduated and progressive, the ratio of such graduation and progression to be determined by the General Assembly.

Sec. 4. Taxes on incomes shall be levied and collected only by the State. The revenue raised under the general income tax shall be apportioned to the State and to the taxing bodies as the General Assembly may prescribe. Of the revenue raised under any income tax imposed under section 2 of this article there shall be used for State purposes the same percentage as is used from the total revenue from taxes by valuation and the residue shall be returned to the respective counties from which it was collected to be distributed among the taxing bodies thereof as provided by general law.

Sec. 5. Exemptions and deductions may be allowed as follows and not otherwise:

First, the following classes of property and the income therefrom may be relieved by general law from taxation; (1) public property; (2) household furniture used as such up to five hundred dollars in value; (3) parsonages owned and used as such; (4) property used exclusively for (a) agricultural and horticultural societies not organized for pecuniary profit, (b) incorporated societies of war veterans, (c) cemeteries not held for private profit and (d) school, charitable or religious purposes.

Second, if a general income tax is imposed as authorized in section 3 of this article, the General Assembly may provide for: (1) an exemption from income derived from personal service of not to exceed two thousand dollars to the head of a family plus four hundred dollars for each child or dependent; (2) such deductions as shall compensate for taxes paid on property from which the taxed income is derived, or for income tax paid in lieu of a tax by valuation or for taxes imposed on privileges, franchises, or occupations.

Sec. 6. No owner of real estate shall be divested of title for default in payment of general or special taxes or assessments except upon sale by the county treasurer or by forfeiture to the State and in either case only after judgment of a court of record entered after notice as provided by law. Not less than two years shall be allowed to redeem from such sale or forfeiture. The General Assembly may provide that the holder of a tax title based on any tax sale hereafter made may waive claim of title to the land sold and be subrogated to the lien for the tax or assessment for which the sale was made and proceed in equity to foreclose such lien with additional penalties as provided by law.

HOUSE RESOLUTION No. 55.

WHEREAS, In the city of Chicago, there is operating a corporation known as the Milk Dealers' Bottle Exchange, which, among other things, for its purpose, operates a clearing house for milk bottles and containers used by milk dealers throughout the city of Chicago and vicinity, and

WHEREAS, It appears that by long established usage and custom, the milk trade in the city of Chicago in selling and distributing milk, particularly at retail, there is included in the price charged to the consumer the cost of the bottle or container it being estimated that the average life of each milk bottle is capable of being used for about twenty-eight (28) separate deliveries, and that the cost of the bottle when new with the name of the dairy or milk dealer blown in the glass, averages about \$0.04 $\frac{1}{4}$ per bottle, and

WHEREAS, The said Milk Dealers' Bottle Exchange has brought more than one hundred (100) replevin suits in the city of Chicago in the courts of record and against various and sundry milk dealers for the purpose of recovering bottles alleged to have belonged to members of the said Milk Dealers' Bottle Exchange. These replevin suits are brought indiscriminately and rarely, if ever, are brought where a bond of more than one hundred ($100.00) dollars is furnished by said Milk Dealers' Bottle Exchange. Injunction proceedings are threatened against the milk dealers for using bottles not their own, notwithstanding the custom and usage of long standing in the city of Chicago for using bottles of other dealers, these bottles coming into their hands were on the routes of milk dealers at the homes of customers and the question of property rights in and to the milk bottles being a matter of serious question, and

WHEREAS, The Milk Dealers' Bottle Exchange solicits members among milk dealers and a large number of them are being coerced for fear of having replevin suits and injunction suits brought against them, and

WHEREAS, A large number of wholesale and retail milk dealers who refuse to become members of this corporation are subjected to prosecution by said Milk Dealers' Bottle Exchange for the recovering of milk bottles fairly, honestly and legitimately acquired in the course of calls on their customers and are being continually hampered and oppressed by unwarranted and spurious legislation, and

WHEREAS, It appears that the activities of this corporation is detrimental to the milk trade in Chicago and elsewhere, and that this organization, if permitted to continue its present course of operation and conduct will destroy the business of hundreds of small dairymen;

Resolved, That the Speaker appoint a committee of seven (7) members to make a careful examination, inquiry and investigation of the conduct, management and operation of said Milk Dealers' Bottle Exchange.

Said committee shall report its conclusion, finding and recommendation as expeditiously as may be, to the House, and shall recommend such proposed and remedial legislation as may be deemed necessary arising out of the subject matter of this inquiry.

For the purpose of conducting such investigation, said committee is hereby authorized and empowered to subpoena witnesses under the signature of the chairman to place under oath and examine such witnesses, and to issue subpoenas duces tecum for witness or witnesses, and for such books, documents, papers, memoranda or things as such committee shall deem necessary for its information in carrying out the objects and purposes of this resolution.

Said committee is authorized to require any person or persons to cause to be submitted to said committee, or any person duly authorized to act for it, for inspection and examination, any books, papers, documents or letters of any character, kind or description.

Such committee is authorized to employ such assistance as it may require.

Said committee and the members thereof shall be entitled to actual expenses incurred in the performance of the duties required under and by virtue of the investigation directed and authorized by this resolution.

AMENDMENT No. 1.

Amend House Bill No. 148 in Senate by striking out section 2 of the printed bill and inserting in lieu thereof the following:

"Section 2. Because Cook County is now the only county of the third class and the fees now prescribed by law for counties of the third class for recording deeds or other instruments in writing and maps or plats of additions, subdivisions, or otherwise, and for certified copies of records, are insufficient to pay the costs of such recording and certification, and a heavy loss is sustained each day by the county of Cook in such work, which loss must be met by increased general taxation, because such loss is liable to increase rather than to decrease, and because the office of the recorder of deeds of Cook County should at all times be self-sustaining, an emergency exists and because of that emergency this Act shall take effect upon its passage."

The Speaker laid before the House the following veto message from the Governor, which was received and ordered placed on file:

STATE OF ILLINOIS,
EXECUTIVE DEPARTMENT.
SPRINGFIELD, April 28, 1923.

To the Honorable, the House of Representatives:

I return herewith, without my approval, House Bill No. 188 being a bill for "An Act to authorize judges of courts of record to appoint jury commissioners and prescribing their powers and duties and to repeal an Act entitled 'An Act to amend an Act,' entitled 'An Act to authorize judges of courts of record to appoint jury commissioners and prescribing their powers and duties,' approved June 9, 1897, in force July 1, 1897," and submit as reasons for my veto the following:

I feel that this bill as a whole tends to jeopardize the rights and liberties of the common people of this State, and particularly the section of the State to which it applies. It provides for startling changes in the method of selecting petit jurors and grand jurors in Cook County. At present the jury commissioners of the county, who are chosen by a majority of the judges of the courts of record of the county, are required to compile a list of all electors of the county between the ages of twenty-one and sixty years and from this list are required to select persons for jury service, placing the names of such persons upon cards, and placing and maintaining in the petit jury box fifteen thousand of such names, and in the grand jury box one thousand of such names. From these boxes jurors are drawn as required from time to time to serve in the courts of record of that county. Admittedly the present system is weak through defects in theory, as well as in practical operation. The proposed act, however, aggravates rather than minimizes the defects of the present system, and makes abuses of the jury system more easy of accomplishment. This bill, which I return herewith without my approval, provides that the jury commissioner shall compile a list to be known as a jury list, which shall contain ten per cent of the number of electors who voted for President at the last Presidential election. From this ten per cent list the jury commissioners select the names of persons both for the petit jury boxes and for the grand jury box. This ten per cent list may be selected under this proposed act from any section of the county, or from any class of people, to the exclusion of other sections or classes. There is no guarantee, nor even an attempt at assuring an equal distribution of prospective jurors among the diversified classes and interests of the people, nor is there any assurance that all the various classes and interests will be represented upon the grand jury and the petit juries. In fact, this bill makes it possible for the jury commissioners, if they should be so minded, to eliminate from the juries all other classes of people except the ones they desired for jury service. The selection of jurors might, under this bill, be made along racial, religious, or political lines, or might be made to subserve some selfish or predatory interests whose purpose was the destruction of all opposed to them. While such results would not, of course, necessarily, or inevitably follow the enactment of this bill, nevertheless an opening to perpetrate these various abuses and make them lawful and easy of accomplishment is afforded.

House Bill No. 188 goes beyond this. It not only provides a loose method of drawing jurors, as indicated, but it provides that if the jury commissioners do not follow the law, their acts are still legal, unless the litigant, or the person indicted, can show that the unlawful method of selection employed has done him actual and substantial injustice. As a practical matter, no person could show that any particular method of drawing jurors has done him actual and substantial injustice, although he may know perfectly well that such is the case. The result of this provision, which is to be found in the last paragraph of section 7 of the bill, is that while the jury commissioners are enabled to draw jurors in the manner provided by the bill, still, if they do not select them in that manner, their acts are just as legal as if they had followed the law.

The present method of drawing petit juries and grand juries in Cook County is admittedly defective. It leaves to three jury commissioners the discretion of drawing the names of persons, placing such names in the petit jury box, or in the grand jury box, and it has been charged, and not denied, that during the course of many years, grand juries in Cook County were selected from one general class of citizenship hostile to another general class, and that many unfounded indictments were returned against citizens toward whom the grand jurors were hostile.

House Bill No. 188 does not remove this defect. It makes no attempt to secure a fair drawing of grand jurors from all classes of citizenship; in fact, it makes it more easy to limit the selection to one class. It is my hope that upon the return of this bill to the General Assembly, your body will give consideration to a measure, which perhaps can be agreed upon by all concerned, which will guarantee a selection of jurors, impartially and fairly from all classes of the electorate, which will not make it possible to discriminate against one class or to favor another; which will assure every party litigant that the jury which is about to try him, or the grand jury which is selected to make presentments, has been drawn generally and impartially from all parts and classes of the body politic. A new bill should, in my opinion, be drawn which will eliminate, insofar as it is humanly possible, the vesting of discretion in the selection of jurors; which will make it impossible to disregard any class of citizenship, and which will not give to anyone the right to make selections from the jury list, but will provide for the drawing of names impartially, by chance, or at random, from the jury list; and provide that such jury list be made up of all the electorate qualified for jury service in the county. Instead of giving more discretion to the jury commissioners in making choice of names, I hope that the General Assembly will eliminate this discretion insofar as possible.

Another feature of the present law and of House Bill No. 188, to which I desire to draw the attention of the General Assembly, is that which provides that the petit jurors shall be drawn from one box and the grand jurors from another box. This provision in both the present law and in House Bill No. 188 makes it possible to select the names of grand jurors from a limited class of the electors and to effectually disregard and discriminate against all other classes. It has been openly charged upon hearing of this bill, that this practice has in times past been followed in the county of Cook, and that at various times unfair and partial selections of names were made for the grand jury box. There seems to be no good reason why the names of the grand jurors and the names of the petit jurors should not be in the same box, and why prospective jury men for either the petit or grand jury should not be drawn from one and the same source. This would tend to insure an impartial and fair selection of grand jurors from the whole citizenship. I recommend that, in case a bill be drawn, provision be made for drawing both the petit and grand juries from the same jury box.

Another feature of House Bill No. 188 provides that prospective jury men may designate two or more terms of court at which they prefer to serve. If this provision were enacted into law, it could result, and very likely would result, in some classes or interests designating certain specified terms at which they would prefer to serve, and those with whom they were in sympathy, who had cases for trial at such terms, might receive partial consideration and favoritism, while those to whom they were opposed might be denied justice and the equal protection of the laws.

A further objectionable feature in House Bill No. 188 is that the jury commissioners are given power to mail questionnaires to any elector in the county and the elector is required to answer the questions and return the questionnaire within five days; and in case of a willful failure to make such a return, he is subject to a fine of fifty dollars ($50.00). The bill does not provide what questions may be embodied in the questionnaire, and the commissioners may ask any question which may suggest itself to them and may, indeed, propound questions which would enable the commissioners to classify and discriminate against certain classes.

In critical times like these, it seems to me that no greater mistake could be made than to shake the faith of the common people in the fairness, integrity and impartiality of the American jury system, which has ever been regarded as the safeguard of the liberties of the masses of the people; and, if laws are enacted which cast suspicion upon the fairness of the method by which jurors are drawn, or may be drawn, such enactment would strike a blow at the peace and security of our commonwealth.

For the foregoing reasons, I veto and withhold my approval from House Bill No. 188, and return the same herewith.

Respectfully submitted,

LEN. SMALL, Governor of Illinois.

AMENDMENT No. 3.

Amend House Bill No. 361 by inserting between pages 3 and 4 the following section:

Sec. 154. The public school teachers' pension and retirement fund of such city shall consist of moneys paid into said fund by persons desiring the benefits thereof, under the provisions of this Act; of moneys received from donations, legacies, gifts, bequests or otherwise on account of said fund, and of moneys paid into said fund in pursuance of any law now in force or hereafter to be enacted, and also all taxes collected for said fund pursuant to the levy herein (or hereafter) authorized, and moneys from any legal source or increment. For the purpose of providing revenue for such pension fund the board of education of such city shall in the year (1922) 1923 and annually thereafter demand and direct, and the city council of such city shall upon such demand and under such direction in the year (1922) 1923 and annually thereafter levy a tax of three-tenths (3/10) of a mill on the dollar of the assessed valuation of all taxable property on all taxable property in such city. Said tax shall be known as public school teacher's pension and retirement fund tax. Such tax shall be levied and collected in like manner with other general taxes for school or educational purposes of such city and shall be in addition to the maximum of all other taxes which such city (either with or without such demand or direction) is now or hereafter may be authorized by statute to levy upon the aggregate valuation of all taxable property within such city.

The county clerk in reducing taxes levied as and when so required to do by the provisions of section 2 of an Act entitled, "An Act concerning the levy and extension of taxes," approved May 9, 1901, in force July 1, 1901, as subsequently amended, shall not consider the tax herein authorized as a part of the tax levy of such city required to be included in the aggregate of all taxes to be reduced, and no reduction of any tax levy made under the provision of said last mentioned Act shall diminish the amount appropriated or levied for said public school teachers' pension and retirement fund tax. Said tax, when collected, shall be paid into the public school teachers' pension and retirement fund as a part thereof.

And the amendment was adopted.

A message from the Governor, by George D. Sutton, Secretary to the Governor:

Mr. Speaker—The Governor directs me to lay before the House of Representatives the following communication:

STATE OF ILLINOIS,
EXECUTIVE DEPARTMENT.
SPRINGFIELD, May 3, 1923.

To the Honorable, the House of Representatives:

I return herewith House Bill No. 44, entitled "An Act to provide for the ordinary and contingent expenses of the office of the Attorney General until the expiration of the first fiscal quarter after the adjournment of the next regular session of the General Assembly."

I veto and withhold my approval from the following items therein contained:

Page 2, section 1, lines 18 to 20, both inclusive, from the top of the page: "Special investigation and the collection of inheritance tax in Cook County, $16,000 per annum."

Page 2, section 1, lines 21 to 31, both inclusive, from the top of the page; page 3, lines 1 to 9, both inclusive, from the top of the page:

"For attorneys for the Department of Finance, Agriculture, Labor, Mines and Minerals, Public Works and Buildings, Public Welfare, Public Health, Trade and Commerce, Registration and Education; for the Illinois Commerce Commission, for legal work in connection with construction of good roads; litigation in connection with the deep waterway; enforcement of the "Blue Sky" law; for the enforcement of law and for assistance to State's attorneys; for the employment of special assistants, special attorneys, investigators, brief writers and extra help; for court costs in the United States courts and State courts; expenses of conducting investigations; preparation and trial of suits and appeals in the United States courts and courts in this and other states, $125,000 per annum."

Page 3, section 1, lines 10 to 13, both inclusive, from the top of the page:

"For expense of litigation arising from the construction of the Illinois Waterway and litigation over title to and recovery of State property, $50,000 per annum."

Page 3, section 1, lines 28 and 29, from the top of the page:

"For costs and expenses in disbarment proceedings, $5,000 per annum."

Page 3, section 1, lines 30 and 31, from the top of the page:

"For employment of inheritance tax attorneys outside of Cook County, $45,600 per annum."

Page 4, section 1, lines 4 to 6, both inclusive, from the top of the page:

"For dissolution of defunct corporations, not including the costs of publication, $30,000."

My reasons for vetoing the above items are these:

This bill, after eliminating these items, still provides for twenty-one attorneys in addition to four others provided for in the officers' appropriation bill; provides for the complete expenses and maintenance of offices at Springfield and Chicago; provides $50,000 per annum for the Illinois Central litigation and liberal appropriations for office expenses, travel and incidental expenses.

After eliminating these items, the total amount appropriated, including items in the officers' bill and the Herrin appropriation, to the office of the Attorney General at this session, amounts to $612,040. This amount, I believe, in view of such information as I have been able to obtain, to be sufficient properly to finance that office for the coming biennium.

At the time that this bill was transmitted to me for my consideration I did not have before me adequate detailed and specific information regarding expenditures made out of appropriations to the Attorney General in previous years. I did not have such information as would enable me to consider thoroughly and in detail the necessity for the appropriations asked. Not having this information, I sought to discover some orderly and legal way in which I could obtain the desired information.

Upon an examination of the Constitution of this State, I found that section 21 of Article V of the Constitution gives the Governor ample power of obtaining any information he may desire from the executive officers of the government, provided such officers consider themselves bound by the provisions of the Constitution. Section 21, after providing for a regular biennial report to be made by the State officers to the Governor, provides, "And the Governor may at any time require information in writing, under oath, from the officers of the Executive Department, and all officers and managers of State institutions upon any subject relating to the condition, management and expenses of their respective offices."

This provision of the Constitution is not ambiguous and must be clear to any person who understands the English language. It is as broad in its scope as words can make it. It provides that the Governor may at any time require information upon any subject relating to the condition, management and expenses of the executive offices. It was evidently the intention of the framers of the Constitution, and the people who adopted it, to provide for a contingency such as has now arisen and to arm the Chief Executive with the power of obtaining required information from the various officers of the government.

Accordingly, knowing that the Attorney General was an officer of the Executive Department and believing that he was not above obedience to the Constitution, I transmitted to him on Friday, the 27th day of April, 1923, a communication, strictly within the provision of the Constitution which was in the following words:

STATE OF ILLINOIS.
OFFICE OF THE GOVERNOR.
SPRINGFIELD, April 27, 1923.

"The Attorney General of the State of Illinois, Springfield, Illinois.

"Sir: The Fifty-third General Assembly has presented to me for approval or veto an act entitled, "An Act to provide for the ordinary and contingent expenses of the office of the Attorney General until the expiration of the first fiscal quarter after the adjournment of the next regular session of the General Assembly," which appropriates to your office the total sum of $997,240.00, which is in addition to the sum of $53,000.00 appropriated for your office in the Officers' Appropriation Bill now pending and in addition to the sum of $75,000.00 heretofore appropriated for the prosecution of the criminal cases in Williamson County.

"An intelligent and fair consideration of this bill and its various items will be greatly assisted by a more accurate and detailed report of your office than has heretofore been made. Whether these appropriations should be approved appears to me to depend largely upon the wisdom, economy and honesty with which similar appropriations have in the past been disbursed.

"Therefore, by virtue of the provisions of section 21 of Article V of the Constitution of this State, I, Len. Small, Governor of Illinois, do hereby require of you, Edward J. Brundage, Attorney General of Illinois (and one of the officers of the Executive Department of this State) information, in writing under oath, upon the following subjects relating to the condition, management and expenses of the office of the Attorney General of Illinois:

"1. Please state the amounts, by items, appropriated to the office of the Attorney General of Illinois and approved by the Governor in each of the years 1917, 1919 and 1921.

"2. Please state the names and addresses of all persons who received moneys or fees from the office of the Attorney General of Illinois, paid out of the appropriations made in 1917, stating the item of appropriation out of which each such payment was made, and the amount received by each such person.

"3. Please state the names and addresses of all persons who received moneys or fees from the office of the Attorney General of Illinois, paid out of the appropriations made in 1919, stating the item of appropriation out of which each such payment was made and the amount received by each such person.

"4. Please state the names and addresses of all persons who received moneys or fees from the office of the Attorney General of Illinois, paid out of the appropriations made in 1921, stating the item of appropriation out of which each such payment was made and the amount received by each such person.

"5. In the case of each person receiving moneys from or through the office of the Attorney General of Illinois from the State treasury for personal or legal services, please state the period of time for which such money were paid, the number of days each such person appeared in court on behalf of the State, giving the name of the court. This information should cover the entire period from the second Monday of January A. D. 1917 to the present time.

"6. In the case of each person receiving moneys from or through the office of the Attorney General of Illinois from the State treasury for personal services, please state whether such person devoted his entire time to the work of the State or whether he conducted a private law office during the time he received such moneys. This information should cover the period from the second Monday of January A. D. 1917 to the present time.

"7. What balances of the various items appropriated respectively in 1917, 1919 and 1921 remained unexpended and lapsed?

"8. Kindly state whether any persons who were formerly your law partners have received any fees or moneys through the office of the Attorney General of Illinois—giving their names, and the amount received by each through the office of the Attorney General of Illinois in each of the years of 1917, 1918, 1919, 1920, 1921, 1922 and the first three months of 1923.

"9. Please state the names and addresses of all persons who received fees or moneys through the office of the Attorney General of Illinois between January 8th, 1917, and the present time, who contributed to any of your campaign funds during the period mentioned in this paragraph.

"10. Please state the nature of the work, if any, performed by each person who has received fees or moneys from or through the office of the Attorney General of Illinois between January 8th, 1917, and the present time.

"11. Please state the names of the attorneys, experts or other persons who performed services in connection with the case of People vs. Len. Small, whether in Sangamon or Lake counties, and who were paid out of the item of appropriation: 'For employing special counsel, traffic experts, accountants, stenographers, clerks and other necessary assistants in the litigation between the State of Illinois or the People of the State of Illinois and Illinois Central Railroad Company in the courts of this State or in the courts of the United States, including court costs and the pro rata share of commissioners' fees now due or that may hereafter accrue and for the purpose of defraying the costs and expenses of an accounting in such litigation and for the hearing and completion of such litigation$25,000 per annum."

Please state the amount received by each such person out of said item.

"As the Constitution grants me but ten days in which to consider the act in question, I must require that this information be in my hands not later than 10 o'clock p. m. on May first, 1923.

"Respectfully,

"LEN SMALL, Governor of Illinois."

At the time that this communication was transmitted by me to the Attorney General, it was my intention to obtain information which, as I stated in my communication, would disclose whether prior appropriations had been wisely, economically and honestly expended. It was my belief that if these appropriations had been prudently expended for the purposes for which they were made, the Attorney General would be more than pleased to disclose in the greatest detail the information requested. This communication opened to him an opportunity to show by facts and by figures the necessity for the appropriations demanded by him.

However, instead of availing himself of this opportunity he flatly refused to obey the Constitution, sought to construe it to suit his purposes and then entered upon a lengthy tirade of vile and undignified abuse directed against the person of the Governor.

The Attorney General has stated that he has given to the House Appropriations Committee a copy of his payrolls. As far as my investigation extends he has only given to this committee the payrolls covering one biennium. He has not given to the committee his payrolls from 1917 to 1919, nor from 1921 to 1923. But, even the payroll itself insofar as it extends merely shows the names of the persons and the amounts received by them. It does not show the nature or character or necessity of the work performed by the various persons; nor is there any information in the payrolls which would indicate whether the payments were made for actual services or for items, which could have been dispensed with. This information which was requested of the Attorney General was, as I have pointed out, refused for reasons which are best known to the Attorney General himself.

Not being favored with the information which I thus sought, I turned to information relating to appropriations made to Attorneys General of other states of the Union. In a published statement recently the Attorney General has complained that in making comparisons of his appropriations, the Governor disregarded the industrial states of the Union. To do him no injustice, I turned to the State of Pennsylvania, which is an industrial state.

The population of Pennsylvania, as shown by the 1920 Federal census, is 8,720,017, whereas the population of Illinois is 6,485,280, there being 2,234,737 people more in Pennsylvania than there are in Illinois. The same authority states that the people living in cities in Pennsylvania, total 5,607,815. Pennsylvania, therefore, is largely an urban and industrial state; yet, for the current biennium pending bills of appropriation for the years 1923 and 1924 in Pennsylvania provide for a total of $430,000 for two years for the attorney general of that commonwealth. This amount I understand has not yet been approved by the legislature nor by the Governor, but is the amount requested by the attorney general. The amount which I have approved in the bill for the Attorney General of Illinois is still 50 per cent in excess of the amount which is being asked by the Attorney General of the large industrial state of Pennsylvania, a state which is approximately 33 per cent larger in population than our State, and whose industrial population is almost as large as the entire population, both urban and rural, of Illinois.

The state of Ohio, too, is a large state, its population being 5,700,000 people, while that of Illinois is approximately 6,500,000, and in Ohio almost two-thirds of the people live in the cities and industrial centers. In our State approximately the same proportion of the people live in the cities and industrial centers, that is approximately two-thirds of the population. And yet the appropriations which are being asked by the Attorney General of Ohio for the two years 1923 and 1924 total only $226,370. In other words, the population of Ohio is approximately five-sixths that of Illinois, whereas the Attorney General of Ohio is asking for only about one-fourth the amount being requested by the Attorney General of Illinois.

Michigan also is a largely industrial and urban state, containing as it does the large automobile manufacturing establishments, the furniture industry and many other important industrial enterprises. Its population is approximately 3,700,000 of which 60 per cent resides in the cities and industrial centers. For the past two years the appropriation to the Attorney General of Michigan amounted to $201,900, which when taken in connection with the relative population of that state and of Illinois is but 40 per cent of the amount requested by the Attorney General of Illinois.

Another striking comparison is the State of Massachusetts which has a population of approximately 3,850,000 of which 3,650,000 reside in the cities and industrial centers. More than 90% of the people of Massachusetts are urban and are engaged in industry. For the present year the Attorney General of that State is receiving an appropriation of $102,000, or for a biennium this would be $204,000. In proportion to the population the Attorney General of Massachusetts receives but 40% of the amount asked by the same officer in Illinois.

In the State of Missouri for the biennium, which is just ending, the appropriation made to the Attorney General was $172,000 and available information indicates a decrease in the amount to be appropriated for the coming two years. This is an extremely important fact because under the statute of Missouri making the appropriations, the Attorney General is specifically charged with performing all the duties which the Attorney General of Illinois is bound to perform under our law.

The statute of that state not only makes it the duty of the Attorney General to appear in any court in defense of any officer, Board or Department of that state, but also makes it his duty to protect the rights and interests of the state in any suit, case or proceeding and in any and all matters wherein the state is a party or is interested. All of these duties were performed by the Attorney General of Missouri upon an appropriation of $172,000 for the past biennium. The Missouri State budget shows that Attorney General Barrett of that state turned back $50,000 of this sum as unused, so that the total amount expended for the past two years in the State of Missouri was but $122,000; and instead of asking for an increased appropriation the Attorney General of Missouri asked for a decrease in his appropriation and the 1923 legislature has appropriated to him only the sum of $146,800. The Attorney General of that state was justly proud of the record of economy which he had made, and, in the state budget for 1923, called attention to the fact that the work in his office is conducted with the aid of seven assistants, whereas the Attorney General of Illinois has twenty regular assistants and almost fifty special deputies. The litigation of the State of Missouri, which was being handled by its Attorney General, is said to involve more than $50,000,000.

Even after eliminating the items, which are vetoed by this message, from the Attorney General's bill he is still receiving in appropriations an amount approximately equal to the combined sum received by the Attorneys General of the six neighboring states of Wisconsin, Michigan, Indiana, Kentucky, Missouri and Iowa. Certainly the legal business in this State is not greater than that in these six states, whose combined population is more than 16,000,000 people, it being two and two-thirds times greater than the population of Illinois.

These figures are indicative of appropriations made to a similar office in other states. A comparison of the population both in the cities and in rural districts, with the population both urban and rural of this State and a comparison of the respective amounts appropriated clearly shows that the Attorney General of this State is receiving, after deducting the amounts which are vetoed, a sum substantially larger than the same officer in other states, considering both the work to be performed, the population and the business of the respective states.

In only one state of the Union does the Attorney General receive as much or more than the Attorney General of this State and that is the State of New York, which has a population of 10,385,000 people, or 66 $\frac{2}{3}$ % larger than the population of this State, and in which the urban or industrial population is 8,600,000, or more than two and a quarter million greater than the entire population, both city and rural of Illinois.

Moreover, the State government of New York is apparently operated upon a gigantic scale of expenditures. During the biennium just passed appropriations, exclusive of good roads, in that state totaled more than $263,000,000. This is more than three times the amount appropriated for similar purposes in our State where the same operations of government were performed on a total of $80,000,000. The appropriations to all departments in New York are far larger than similar appropriations in any other state in the Union, and that state in which appropriations generally are more than three times as great as they are in Illinois is the only one of the forty-eight in which appropriations to the Attorney General's office are as great as they are in Illinois.

It seems to me to be clear, from the facts which I have set out, that the amount, to which the appropriation to the Attorney General has been scaled, is approximately correct, and is not only as much but considerably more than other states allow their Attorneys General, taking into consideration the population and business of the various states.

In published statements the Attorney General of this State has charged that appropriations to his office were vetoed two years ago to prevent him from prosecuting indictments against the Governor. This charge is utterly false. As a matter of fact, it is apparent that unfounded indictments were returned to punish the Governor because he did exercise his veto power. Few, if any indictments have ever been prosecuted in this State upon which the prosecution has been represented by a greater array of counsel than was the case at Waukegan. Representing the Attorney General were fourteen attorneys, six of whom were present every day during the taking of testimony and the other eight were employed in devious ways in connection with the case. These fourteen attorneys were assisted by an expert accountant and by an army of detectives. The defense in that case was represented by but three attorneys. The Attorney General was not hampered in his prosecution; he had four attorneys for every one employed by the defense.

Besides this, the items vetoed by the Governor two years ago could not, under any circumstances, have been used to prosecute the suits referred to. The Constitution and law of this State provide that an appropriation must be used for the purpose and object for which it was made and that no officer can divert any appropriation from such purpose. A careful examination of the veto message of the Governor of two years ago will disclose that there was not an item vetoed by the Governor which could have lawfully been used to prosecute the suits against Len Small. Attention is directed to section 208 of the Criminal Code, which provides, among other things, that "Every person holding any public office (whether State, county or municipal) * * * who shall be guilty of diverting any public money from the use or purpose for which it may have been appropriated or set apart by or under authority of law, * * * shall be fined not exceeding $10,000 and may be removed from office. * * *"

The items vetoed by the Governor two years ago could not have been used, in the suits referred to, without plainly violating this provision of the Criminal Code. Upon the trial at Waukegan there was evidence which tended to show that moneys had been diverted from the Illinois Central appropriation for the purpose of prosecuting Len. Small and one witness for the prosecution testified that for eleven months he had been attempting to gather evidence against Len. Small and during this period he was receiving pay every month out of the appropriation made to the Attorney General for prosecuting suits against the Illinois Central Railroad Company.

No one knows better than the Attorney General that Len. Small accounted to the State of Illinois for every dollar that was due from him as State Treasurer and turned over to the State more than twice as much in interest as any State Treasurer who preceded him.

This bill provides an appropriation of $100,000 for prosecuting suits against the Illinois Central Railroad Company. I am of the opinion that this sum is too large, there having been previously appropriated by preceding General Assemblies a total sum of $640,000 for the prosecuting of these suits; but the Constitution does not give me the right of reducing any sum but leaves me the option of approving or vetoing the entire item.

Referring once more specifically to the six items of the bill which I have vetoed, I desire to add the following observations:

The item for dissolution of defunct corporations is obviously unnecessary. A defunct corporation is one which no longer performs or exercises its functions. It is, in other words, defunct and the act of dissolution is largely a formal matter. To dissolve a defunct corporation is merely pronouncing dead something which has already died.

The item of $45,600 per annum for Inheritance tax attorneys outside of Cook County can be dispensed with because it has been the practice for many years for the Attorney General and the State Treasurer to appoint the cashier of the bank in which a safety deposit box was located to conduct the examination of the contents of the box. This practice has been followed in a great majority of cases and has proven uniformly successful. Furthermore, the respective State's attorneys of the counties outside of Cook are available to perform any duties necessary in connection with the Inheritance Tax and attend to any appearances in court that are required on behalf of the State.

The other four items which are vetoed, being the item of $5,000 per annum for disbarment proceedings, $16,000 per annum for collection of inheritance tax in Cook County, $50,000 per annum for waterway litigation and $125,000 per annum for attorneys for the various departments simply provide for a duplication of functions. The bill as it remains after taking out the vetoed items provides for twenty-five attorneys besides the attorney general himself. These attorneys should be amply able to care for any legal work in connection with the operation of the various departments. The same applies to the Waterway item, inheritance tax collection in Cook County, and the disbarment proceedings. All of these functions can be performed by the attorneys who regularly work in the Springfield and Chicago offices of the Attorney General and there is no necessity for providing large sums of money for additional counsel to perform the same duties.

For the foregoing reasons I have vetoed the six items above referred to, which eliminate from this bill the total sum of $513,200, leaving for the ordinary and contingent expenses of the Attorney General's office the total sum of $612,040, which sum includes the amounts in the officers' appropriation bill and the Herrin appropriation.

Respectfully submitted,

LEN. SMALL, Governor of Illinois.

The House proceeding on the consideration of the veto message of the Governor to House Bill No. 44, a bill for "An Act to provide for the ordinary and contingent expenses of the office of the Attorney General until the expiration of the first fiscal quarter after the adjournment of the next regular session of the General Assembly," transmitted to the House on May 3, 1923.

The same was taken up and read at large, together with the following communication to the Governor from the Attorney General, to-wit:

STATE OF ILLINOIS,
LAW DEPARTMENT.

SPRINGFIELD, April 30, 1923.

EDWARD J. BRUNDAGE,

Attorney General.

To the Governor of the State of Illinois, Springfield, Illinois.

SIR: I am in receipt of your letter of April 27th in which you request in substance that I make a report to you in writing, under oath, of every dollar which has been expended or vouchered for payment by me from appropriations made to this department by the General Assembly from the period beginning January 8, 1917, down to the present time. You expressly state that your request for such information is made by virtue of the provisions of section 21, article 5, of the Constitution of this State. In my opinion the section of the Constitution referred to requires that the various officers of the Executive Department and others report to you at least ten days before each regular session of the General Assembly. All biennial reports so required from the Attorney General were filed in the office of the Governor in the regular form prescribed by law. You have under the provisions of the section referred to the right to any specific information of a financial nature on a subject matter arising since the biennial report was filed in your office.

It is my opinion further that the only purpose of this clause of the Constitution is to have placed before the Governor when requested by him information which will show the financial standing of the various State offices. A report of the amount and purposes of expenditures would be a compliance with said constitutional provision. If any information since the biennial report is desired by you within the scope of your authority of the character I have indicated, I shall furnish it.

The information you request in Paragraph 1 of the various appropriation bills are matters of public record, and the information requested in the other paragraphs of your request are already subject to your inspection by reason of information heretofore filed by me in the office of the State

Auditor in conjunction with each payment which has been made out of appropriations pertaining to my office, and that insofar as I have information, which I could give you within the short time allotted me, the same thing applies to other paragraphs of your request.

The information requested by you is clearly beyond your authority to demand and from the wording of your communication is plainly intended to further hoodwink the people into the belief that a personal controversy exists between you and the Attorney General, an implied political feud—so as to divert public attention from the one difference—personal to you, which is the suits instituted by the Attorney General to recover public moneys unlawfully withheld by you and your predecessors while acting as Treasurer of the State of Illinois.

The Constitution grants the Governor no authority to supervise the details of management of any elective officer. Such officers are elected by the people and are directly responsible to them. The direction of any lawsuits instituted by the Attorney General rests solely with him, and in his expenditures within the appropriations for the conduct of such lawsuits he is accountable only to the people. The framers of the Constitution of 1870 never intended that a person charged with the misuse of public funds could by the possession of the office of Governor require the Attorney General to divulge information in the conduct, management or status of the suits in which the erstwhile Treasurer was the defendant.

I am somewhat skeptical of the avowed intention of the Governor as relates to "an intelligent and fair consideration" of the various items of the Appropriation Bill for the office of the Attorney General. It is obvious the vetoing of items passed by the preceding General Assembly was to prevent the Attorney General from instituting litigation for the recovery from the former Treasurers of the State of Illinois of a vast sum of money unlawfully withheld from the people and unlawfully obtained by the State Treasurers through the manipulation of the interest earned upon the public funds.

Intimations have been made to the Attorney General from alleged friends of your administration that the dismissal of the civil suits for the recovery of the money unlawfully obtained by you as State Treasurer would lead to the signing of the Appropriation Bill for the Attorney General in the form passed by the General Assembly. It is because of these things that the Attorney General is reasonably skeptical about the "fair" consideration of any appropriation bill carrying items which might possibly be used to prosecute the cases instituted by the Attorney General for and in behalf of the people with relation to the interest on the moneys aforesaid.

In order, however, that you may not be able to convey any false impression that the Attorney General is reluctant to furnish any interested person complete information concerning the expenditures of his office, so far as such information will not interfere with pending lawsuits, I volunteer the following: The Attorney General readily gave the Appropriations Committee of the House of Representatives a copy of every payroll and voucher signed by him as Attorney General during the last four years. I am reliably informed that your press agent and other personal representatives had access to and eagerly scrutinized such payrolls.

Incidentally it might be added that the Attorney General, with one exception, was the only State officer who felt no reluctance in furnishing payrolls and vouchers requested by the Committee on Appropriations. May I ask if the Governor has been equally open in meeting the wishes of the Committee?

Your inquiry concerning the appropriations made to the office of the Attorney General for the years 1917, 1919 and 1921, is readily answered by the bound copies of the Session Laws, which are undoubtedly in your office as in all other State offices.

The suggestion that I account to you for the four years prior to your inauguration is somewhat amusing. During those years Illinois was fortunate in having a Chief Executive whose record was unassailable and whose integrity unquestioned. The present Appropriation Bill before you for "fair" and "intelligent" consideration is approximately in the same sum as that approved by Governor Lowden and equals in amount the same total voted by the General Assembly to former Attorney General Patrick J. Lucey and approved by Governor Dunne during the last year of his term and after the Fergus decision had placed all lawyers under the control of the Attorney General.

You have seen fit to disseminate misleading comparisons of expenditures by Attorneys General of other states. Agricultural states seem to be preferred in this comparison. Litigation does not arise from the farm but from the industrial districts and from the great centers of population. The statutes and Constitution of each state vary in the duties prescribed for the Attorney General, but none has more power or more duties than the Attorney General of Illinois. New York State affords the only just comparison. There the Attorney General in the last annual appropriation received $635,000 and for other legal work of the state for the Tax Commission, Insurance Commission and other departments, an additional $433,500 was appropriated, making a total annual appropriation for legal work in the State of New York of $1,068,500, or more than twice such service costs in Illinois as gauged by the Appropriation Bill now before you.

The lamb-like inquiry as to the number of days each person appeared in court on behalf of the State of Illinois, and the name of the court, is as easily answered as for you to furnish the court with dates and amounts of the various drafts drawn by you as State Treasurer during those same years, payable to the Grant Park Bank. The Attorney General is represented in every court in Illinois in some form of litigation almost every day of the year.

Your insinuating inquiry whether any person received money who were formerly associated with me as law partners is guileful indeed, but I will volunteer answer to this insulting insinuation. Mr. Benson Landon was formerly associated with me in the practice of law, but I severed that connection at the time I was inaugurated as Attorney General. Mr. Benson Landon has been associated with Mr. Hiram T. Gilbert in the prosecution of the Illinois Central cases since I became Attorney General. The conduct of these cases was offered by me to former Attorney General William H. Stead, who declined the absorbing duty, and at the direct request of Mr. Gilbert, Mr. Landon was employed. It was because of advancing years that Mr. Gilbert felt the need of assistance, he having been in the Illinois Central litigation since its inception. Mr. Gilbert voiced his appreciation of the work of Mr. Landon in a letter to Representative Tice, dated March 7, 1923, of which, for your edification, I enclose a copy. The Illinois Central litigation, instituted by Attorney General Stead at the request of former Governor Deneen, is reaching a conclusion, and after a decision upon objections to the Master's Report, it will be briefed for the Supreme Court. Eighteen years of litigation is thus approaching an end. This case has been on hearings before a Master almost continuously 365 days of the year.

Permit me to further add for your "fair" and "intelligent" consideration that Mr. Landon receives $100 a day for his services when actually engaged in the Illinois Central litigation, which involves, if successful to the State, the recovery of many millions of dollars. This per diem was discussed by me with Governor Lowden at the time of Mr. Landon's employment and met with the approval of Governor Lowden as reasonable, it being the minimum per diem for lawyers in important litigation.

The last of your ingenious inquiries reveals the meat in the cocoanut, —how much of the State's money was spent in prosecuting Len Small at Waukegan? I can not go into the details of the case because the method by which your acquittal was obtained is now the subject of a grand jury investigation in Lake County. Information divulged by me on this subject might hinder the State's Attorney of Lake County in his investigation.

I may say, however, that the only person in any wise connected with employment through the Illinois Central fund was Auditor Donald E. Currier. Mr. Currier has been employed as an accountant in the Illinois Central litigation for many years, long before I became Attorney General. The terms of his employment were fixed by my predecessors and they required from him such services as the attorneys in the conduct of the case demanded. Mr. Currier receives from the State of Illinois for his work in connection with the Illinois Central case the sum of $375 per month. Because you vetoed my appropriation I had no money, as you fully intended I should not have, to gather data or to protect the jury then trying you from being tampered with. I was obliged to utilize every fair means at my command. I induced Mr. Currier to devote his extra time to analyzing the various transactions of yourself as State Treasurer which he did, showing that $2,185,000 of public money was still withheld by yourself and associates. Mr. Currier did this work at extra time and with no neglect of his duties in connection with the Illinois Central case. It is true that he hoped for compensation and in justice he should receive it, as he did valuable work for the people of the State of Illinois. Unfortunately I have not been able to compensate him.

The evidence introduced in court in the trial of yourself at Waukegan is of public record, but as you are desirous of information of conditions prevailing in 1917 and 1918, permit me again to call your attention to the fact that Len Small, as State Treasurer, paid out of the appropriation made to him by the General Assembly for Inheritance Tax investigators, on June 30, 1917, to E. B. Griffin, of the metropolis of Grant Park, whose mythical bank at one time had ostensibly eighteen millions of public funds on deposit, the sum of $2,300. On that same day Vernon S. Curtis, still awaiting trial at Waukegan, and a resident of the same metropolis of Grant Park, was paid the sum of $1,798.50. Again, the law firm of Small, Bratton & Schroeder drew $1,500 on that generous day. On March 27, 1918, the members of that law firm drew separately and individually $400 each. On December 19, 1918, Mr. V. S. Curtis drew $1,400, E. B. Griffin $1,400 and a final dividend on January 9, 1919, the day you went out of office as State Treasurer was vouchered by you of $300 each to lawyers Bratton and Schroeder, making a total of $10,198.50 distributed to gentlemen from Kankakee County out of the money appropriated for Inheritance Tax investigations.

If you are still desirous of further enlightenment as to the financial transactions of 1917 and the following year, may I call your attention to the payment to former State Auditor James J. Brady, as follows: June 30, 1917, $2,500; November 19, 1917, $2,500; July 20, 1918, $2,500; October 1, 1918, $1,250; December 19, 1918, $1,250. It might add to the enlightenment of the public in a "fair" and "intelligent" consideration of the years of 1917 and 1918 to know why the former Auditor of Public Accounts received $10,000 from State Treasurer Len Small out of moneys appropriated by the Legislature for Inheritance Tax investigations.

Your interest in obtaining the names of persons who contributed to my campaign fund shows business-like methods. I am positive the raising of funds by contribution can be better answered by an explanation of the amounts raised, at the Congress Hotel, at the meeting of October, 1921, by State officers and other interested persons to defend you against suits brought in behalf of the State of Illinois.

In conclusion let me again emphasize that I will readily furnish you with any information which you have the right to request. I shall, however, not be a party to any attempt to debase myself in order to obtain public funds properly voted to me by the General Assembly with which to conduct the law work of the State of Illinois. If you see fit, you may do as you did before and veto part or all of the appropriations to the Attorney General. Do not, however, think that you deceive the public as to the purpose of your vetoing. No other State officer is asked to give you detailed information such as is requested of me; no other State officer suffered from your vetoing pen. The plea of economy is rudely disrupted by the vision of the same amount cut from the Attorney General for the purpose of law enforcement given to your department of Trade and Commerce for extra jobs for which you had the appointments.

Respectfully submitted.

(Signed) EDWARD J. BRUNDAGE, Attorney General.

A message from the Governor, by George D. Sutton, Secretary to the Governor:

Mr. Speaker—The Governor directs me to lay before the House of Representatives the following communication:

STATE OF ILLINOIS.
EXECUTIVE DEPARTMENT.
SPRINGFIELD, May 10, 1923.

To the Members of the Fifty-third General Assembly:

I am submitting herewith certain information touching the maintenance of the Illinois National Guard, which has been presented to me by the Adjutant General and Officers of the Illinois National Guard, together with certain suggestions and recommendations for such consideration and action as your Honorable Body may deem proper.

The history of Camp Grant at Rockford, Illinois, will always be closely associated with the history of Illinois' participation in the World War. It was named after a great soldier of this State and it was there that the 86th Division, which was distinctly an Illinois Division, as well as thousands of other Illinois soldiers, were trained.

A careful survey made by the Adjutant General and Officers of the 33rd Division of the Illinois National Guard shows that Illinois is practically the only major State in the Union, to which a Division of the National Guard had been assigned, which has no state camp where troops can be properly and adequately trained.

The United States Government is offering to our State, subject to certain conditions, what is represented to be practically a perpetual license for the exclusive use and occupancy of Camp Grant. Correspondence has been carried on between the Adjutant General and the War Department with reference to the terms and conditions on which the license may be granted, and there is reason to believe that the State authorities and the representatives of the War Department of the Federal Government can come to an equitable agreement by conference. In the meantime, the question of whether the State shall accept this 3400 acre camp ground, so rich in historical recollections, and put it in condition suitable for the use of the National Guard, will naturally involve considerable expenditure and is one for the consideration of the General Assembly. Certainly, an opportunity for Illinois to get a centrally located military training camp without cost for the land, which it is claimed can be made equal to Camp Custer in Michigan, and other notable state camps, should have the consideration of the General Assembly.

If it is decided to accept this offer, funds will be required to put the camp in condition for such a general use of the troops of Illinois as may be deemed proper. The acquisition of this camp by our State will afford our citizens an opportunity to witness the accomplishments of our National Guard. It will afford our National Guard great opportunities for proper manoeuvres and general encampment work.

I recommend that your Honorable Body take such action as you may deem proper to give this offer of the Federal Government careful consideration. In case of the appointment of a committee, I would suggest that the Adjutant General, the Commander of the 33rd Division, the Chief of Staff and other Officers of the Staff and Units of the National Guard who have made investigations of Camp Grant, Officers of the Regular Army who have made surveys of this camp, the Chairman of the Chicago National Guard Commission and such other patriotic and interested citizens as may be helpful in this inquiry be called for information and advice before such committee. Fitzgerald	Johnson	Mueller	Ryan, F.	Nays—0.

This bill, having received the votes of a constitutional majority of the members elected, was declared passed, ordered that the title be as aforesaid and that the Clerk inform the Senate thereof.

SPECIAL ORDER.

The hour having arrived, the time heretofore fixed for the special consideration of the veto of the Governor of House Bill No. 44, a bill for 'An Act to provide for the ordinary and contingent expenses of the office of the Attorney General until the expiration of the first fiscal quarter after the adjournment of the next regular session of the General Assembly,'

The same was taken up.

Whereupon, the Speaker made the following statement to the House, to-wit:

In the House of Representatives of Congress the form of the question on reconsideration of a bill vetoed by the President is as follows:

"Will the House on reconsideration agree to pass the bill, the objections of the President to the contrary notwithstanding?"

Reference Hinds Precedence, Volume 4, page 360, Section 3534, Note 2.

Section 16, Article V, Constitution of Illinois 1870, provides that the Governor may approve certain items of an appropriation bill and veto certain other items in the same bill, that if the Governor vetoes certain items in a bill and shall approve the residue thereof the bill shall become a law as to the residue in like manner as if he had signed it, and further provides:

"The Governor shall then return the bill, with his objections to the items or sections of the same not approved by him, to the House in which the bill shall have originated, which House shall enter the objections at large upon its journal, and proceed to reconsider so much of said bill as is not approved by the Governor. The same proceeding shall be had in both Houses in reconsidering the same as is herein provided in case of an entire bill returned by the Governor with his objections; and if any item or section of said bill not approved by the Governor shall be passed by two-thirds of the members elected to each of the two Houses of the General Assembly, it shall become part of said law notwithstanding the objections of the Governor."

Under these provisions each item disapproved by the Governor shall be voted on separately.

Thereupon, Item No. 1 was taken up for consideration.

And the question being, "Will the House on reconsideration of so much of House Bill No. 44 entitled, 'An Act to provide for the ordinary and contingent expenses of the office of the Attorney General until the expiration of the first fiscal quarter after the adjournment of the next regular session of the General Assembly,' as has not been approved by the Governor, agree to pass the item therein contained on page 2, section 1, lines 18 to 20, both inclusive, from the top of the-page reading as follows:

HOUSE JOINT RESOLUTION No. 21.

Resolved, by the House of Representatives, the Senate concurring hercin, That the following be adopted as the Joint Rules of the House of Representatives and the Senate of the Fifty-third General Assembly of the State of Illinois:

JOINT RULES.

1. When a message shall be sent from the Senate to the House of Representatives, it shall be announced at the door of the House by the Door-keeper, and shall be respectfully communicated to the Chair by the person by whom it may be sent.

2. The same ceremony shall be observed when messages shall be sent from the House of Representatives to the Senate.

3. Messages shall be sent by such persons as a sense of propriety in each House may determine to be proper.

4. In every case of disagreement between the two Houses, if either House requests a conference, and appoint a committee for that purpose, the other House shall appoint a committee to confer therewith upon the subject of their disagreement. But no subject matter shall be included in any conference committee report on an appropriation bill unless such subject matter directly relates to matters of difference between the Houses and has been specifically referred to the Conference Committee. Said committee shall meet at a convenient time to be agreed upon by their chairmen, and, having conferred freely, each shall report to its respective House the result of their conference. In case of an agreement the report shall be first made, with the papers referred accompanying it, to the disagreeing House, and there acted upon. But no appropriation bill shall be passed and no report of any Conference Committee on an appropriation bill shall be considered unless the bill or report has been printed in its final form and placed on the desks of the members at least three legislative days prior to the final passage of the bill or the consideration of the report. And such action shall be immediately reported by the Clerk to the other House, the papers referred accompanying the message. In case of disagreement, the papers shall remain with the House which referred them. The agreeing report of a Conference Committee shall be made, read and signed in duplicate by all members of the committee, or by a majority of those of each House, one of the duplicates being retained by the committee of each House. Should either House disagree to the report of the committee, such House shall appoint a second committee and request a second conference, which shall be acceded to by the other House before adhering. The motion for a committee of conference, and the report of such committee, shall be in order at any time. When both Houses shall have adhered to their disagreement, a bill or resolution is lost.

5. While bills are on their passage between the two Houses they shall be accompanied by a message signed by the Secretary or Clerk (as the case may be) respectively.

6. After a bill has passed both Houses, it shall be transcribed and typed before it is presented to the Governor.

7. When bills are transcribed and typed, they shall be examined by a joint committee, which shall consist of five members, two from the Senate and three from the House, to be appointed by the Senate and the Speaker of the House respectively. The clerk of the Committee on Enrolling, Transcribing and Typing of Bills of the respective Houses shall act as clerk of the committee whenever their services are required. Said committee shall carefully compare the transcribed and typed bills with the engrossed bills, so passed by both Houses, correct any errors which may be discovered in the enrolled bills, and make their report forthwith to their respective Houses; the Secretary or Clerk having previously certified on the margin of the roll in which House it originated.

8. After examination and report, each bill shall be signed in the respective Houses, by the Speaker of the House of Representatives and by the President of the Senate.

9. After a bill shall have been signed by the President of the Senate and Speaker of the House of Representatives, it shall be presented by said Joint Committee to the Governor for his approval. The said committee shall report the day of presentation to the Governor to each House, which time shall be carefully entered on the Journals of each House.

10. All resolutions and memorials which are to be presented to the Governor shall be previously enrolled, examined, signed and presented to the Joint Committee, reported, and entry made thereof, as provided in case of bills.

11. When a bill or resolution which shall have passed one House is rejected in the other, information thereof shall be given to the House in which the same shall have passed.

12. When the consideration of any bill, memorial, or resolution which has originated in one House shall be postponed in the other to a day so distant that it shall not be taken up again by the present session, the House in which such bill, memorial or resolution shall have originated shall be forthwith informed of such postponement.

13. When a bill, memorial or resolution which has passed one House is rejected in the other, it shall not again be introduced during the same session, except in the House so rejecting, and after three days' notice and leave of that House.

14. Each House shall transmit to the other all papers on which any bill or resolution shall be founded.

15. While the two Houses are acting together upon elections, or on any other matter, the Speaker shall preside, and all questions of order shall be decided by him, subject to an appeal to both Houses, as though but one body was in session. A call of members of either House may be had in joint meeting by order of the House in which the call is desired, and to constitute a quorum of the joint assembly, a majority of all the members elected to both Houses shall be present and voting.

16. Motions to postpone or adjourn shall be decided by a joint vote of both Houses, and yeas and nays upon such motions, if required shall be entered upon the Journals of both Houses.

17. Upon questions arising requiring the separate decision of either House, the Senate shall withdraw until the decision is made. Provided, that questions upon motions for a call of either House shall not come within the provisions of this rule.

18. Each House shall have the liberty of ordering the printing of bills, messages and reports without the consent of the other.

19. Whenever any message, bill, report or document shall be ordered to be printed by the Senate or House, for the use of both Houses, it shall be the duty of the Secretary of the Senate or Clerk of the House (as the case may be) immediately to report the fact of the passage of such order to the other branch of the General Assembly, together with the number so ordered to be printed in case the same shall exceed 300.

HOUSE RESOLUTION No. 62.

WHEREAS, It has long been recognized that the State in order to conserve the interests and general welfare of its citizens must exercise a large measure of supervision and control over the business of making insurance; and

WHEREAS, There is an apparently well founded belief that some of the insurance companies operating in this State are conducting their businesses in a manner which, if not now prohibited by law, at least is unjust and discriminatory toward and oppressive on the people of the State; and

WHEREAS, Many of the statutes regulating the conduct of the several kinds of insurance are wholly inadequate to safeguard the rights of policy-holders and of the general public; now, therefore, be it

Resolved, by the House of Representatives of the Fifty-third General Assembly, That a committee of seven members of the House of Representatives be appointed by the Speaker thereof, for the following purposes:

1. To make an investigation relative to the rates charged for insurance in different localities in Illinois and in other States, the method employed for fixing them, their reasonableness and whether discriminations in rates exist.

2. To investigate the investments of insurance companies both from the standpoint of safety to policy-holders and stockholders, and also as to whether discrimination exists against loans and investments in this State.

3. To inquire whether the regulations and supervision by the State in the matter of policy conditions and provisions adequately protect policy-holders.

4. To make an investigation of the matter of the taxation of the insurance business to determine whether an adequate return is being made to the State for the privilege of engaging in that business; and

5. To investigate any and all other phases of the conduct and transactions of insurance companies in this State in which unfair, unjust and discriminatory methods are employed.

The committee is not limited in its investigations to companies organized under the laws of this State, but shall also include all companies wherever organized which are authorized to and making insurance against any kind of insurance risk in the State of Illinois. It shall include all insurers whether corporation, association, partnership or individual and insurance agencies, bureaus and associations of insurers.

The committee shall make its report to the House of Representatives of the Fifty-third General Assembly, embodying in its report its conclusions, findings and particularly its recommendations for the enactment of remedial legislation.

The committee is empowered for the purpose of conducting hearings, under the signature of the chairman of the committee, to subpoena witnesses and to compel the production of books, papers and records pertinent to the subject matter under investigation, and to place under oath and take the testimony of witnesses. Such counsel and other assistance may be secured by the committee as is deemed necessary to permit the carrying out of the duties enumerated.

be submitted to the electors of this State for adoption or rejection, at the next election of members of the General Assembly, in such manner as may be prescribed by law; and if a majority of the electors voting at said election in the State at large, shall vote for the proposed amendments, such amendments shall become a part of this Constitution.
